One of the queerest churches ever known was that constructed by a missionary in the far north. The missionary found that the Eskimauks had no place in which they could meet for religious services, whereupon he started to build a church of seal skins, no wood or other suitable material being available. The skins were sewn together and stretched over "girders" of whale-bone, empty provision cans serving as seats. More than forty millions of tickets are issued each year by the automatic ticket machines on the underground railways of London.

BERMUDY STILL HAS BRASS RAILS

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Feb. 3. (By Mail.)—Posted conspicuously in the lobby of a big local hotel is a placard which reads: "Bermuda still has license. We expect our patrons to exercise common sense. We do not care how little they drink; excess will not be tolerated."

Some islanders affect to see a promise of a great future founded on the dollars of American tourists who, they believe, will flock hither as to an oasis. Others look with apprehension on the prospect. Meantime the conduct of the tourists is being watched with an unusual degree of interest. Same among the new arrivals do not hesitate to say that they made the trip largely in expectation of throwing off the restraint of their homeland.

"We come here to seek freedom," declared a new arrival as he planted his feet against the brass rail of a local bar. "We have to seek liberty under the folds of the British flag; wherever the Union Jack waves one can take a drink unmolested."

Anything In Your Eye?

Many people who come to us for eye examination imagine there is some foreign substance in their eyes.

It is hard to convince them, sometimes, that these gritty, sandy, scratching, irritating conditions are symptoms and effects due to refractory errors which usually can be corrected by the wearing of properly fitted glasses.

Let us take the "grit" out of your eyes.
