The said unit includes 1360 acres of unallotted land with an estimated stand of five million feet as to which contract will be made with the Superintendent and about 800 acres of allotted lands with an estimated stand of three million feet as to which separate approved contracts with the Indian owners may probably be made. SHASTA VIEW NOTES

There is quite a little sickness in this community, but so far as we know all are getting better.
 O. E. Hunt and C. W. Bailey were in Klamath Falls the last of the week. Mr. Bailey brought out squirrel and rabbit poison for some of the ranchers, who we think will soon "get busy."

S. V. and C. V. Moody have taken the contract for clearing C. F. Stone's ranch and have already done quite a bit of the work. We like to see these improvements.

Miss Hatch was called to Los Angeles Saturday by the illness of a sister who has pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Bailey were in Merrill Sunday to see the C. C. Garrison family, who have had the "flu," and learn that they are all improving, which is good news.

H. E. Wilson was in Klamath Falls one day last week, and while there purchased a Victrola, which adds one more pleasure to the home.

A. H. Hale has had a crew of men at work the past week clearing out the irrigation ditch and putting it in good shape for its spring duties.

Walter Story of Merrill and Albert Grayson of Malin were guests at O. E. Hunt's Sunday.

Joseph Chotard, who has been working for B. P. Lewis at Klamath Falls, has returned to his home here for a time, where he thinks the "flu" will not be as apt to find him.

The entertainment that was to have been given at the Shasta View school house February 27, has been postponed on account of so much sickness.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our many friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister.

TOOK TRAINING TO MAKE THIS SINGER

Miss Marie Morrisey, whose concert on Monday at the Houston Opera house promises to be one of the most delightful of the season, insists that her voice was not always received with the same favor as it is today.

It seems that Miss Morrisey has always been determined to sing. And when she was a little girl, she used to lift up her voice and carol loudly for the edification of herself and all the neighbors.

One day, the policeman on the beat passed Miss Morrisey's house, and hearing strange sounds issuing forth, he finally concluded to investigate.

He was a good policeman, was Pat, and he took an interest in all the affairs of the street. So he presented himself before Miss Morrisey's mother.

"Madame," said he, "is that your child?" Miss Morrisey ceased her singing long enough to hear her mother admit the relationship.

"Well, Madam," said Pat, "what in the world is the matter with her to make her cry all the time?"
