GERMANS FEEL
DEFEATS STING

KIEL, Feb. 19. (By Mail).—The intense feeling still existing in Germany against England was manifested toward some British officers who accompanied the Inter-Allied Commission of Control on a recent visit here. The town was crowded with German sailors who were clean and smartly dressed. They passed by with averted faces, but civilians on the contrary showed the keenest interest and stared at the visitors, occasionally remarking "Gott strafe England." The British visitors took no notice and walked on, followed by a train of small boys many of whom repeated in a childish treble "Gott Strafe England" at intervals.

The showkeepers, however, were quite friendly and trade became very brisk.

Further evidence of the present attitude of the Germans was forthcoming at the Kiel Canal, where the children gathered on the banks invariably shouted out the old cry of "Gott strafe England".

One man cried "We will have you yet" while the final effort at the close of the return journey was that of the optimist who proclaimed: "We shall have another war in five years time."

BAPTISTS OPEN CAMPAIGN FOR BETTER CHURCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—After a survey extending over a period of eighteen months in which the full needs of the church were outlined, western headquarters were opened in this city to launch the western division's activity in the 'New World Movement' of the Northern Baptist Church in America, for church betterment and strengthening. The drive which is now being inaugurated throughout the country will culminate in an intensive week April 27th to May 2nd. The Baptist Church has fixed a goal of one hundred million dollars as the amount necessary to carry out the world program outlined in the survey.

Headquarters in this city for eight western states are in the Claus Spreckels Building. In charge of A. A. Protzman, of New York, an organizer who has been for twenty years trained in organization work and who was active in many of the great war work and patriotic drives. The national headquarters are in New York city, under the general direction of Dr. J. Y. Aitchison, with the direct campaign activities in charge of A. C. Marts, of New York.

In addition to the financial phase of the movement will be a call for thousands of men and women of the church, for church service in the missionary field both here and abroad.

One of the important results of the movement will be the raise in salaries of Baptist clergy, probably the poorest paid of any christian denomination.

"The public may not understand this," said Dr. Protzman today, "but the survey reveals that the average salary paid Baptist clergymen in the Northern Baptist Church is $1187 per year, with the exception of a few clergymen who reside in large cities. Less than 700 out of 8,823 ordained Baptist ministers in the northern territory receive as much as $1500 a year."

Director Protzman emphasized the fact that the movement was essentially a laymen's movement in which is to be developed the full responsibility of the laymen toward the church. Each of the eight western states will have a lay director who will have under him lay county directors, who in turn will have lay chairman of the committees in the individual churches.

NOT SO CRAZY AS YOU WOULD SUPPOSE

HONOLULU, Jan. 23.—(By Mail)—Patients at the territorial hospital for the insane who have been working in the tailor shop making clothes for themselves and the other patients have gone on strike and has refused to put in another stitch unless they are paid for their labor. This is the statement of Dr. F. E. Trotter, president of the board of health. The board is considering employing outside help to do the hospital sewing abandoned by the inmates, Dr. Trotter said.

THOUGHT FAMOUS
COMPOSER STILL LIVED.

VIENNA, Jan. 27. (By Mail).—A letter addressed to the composer Beethoven was received in Vienna the other day from a woman in the province. She wrote she had recently heard some of his music and was anxious to place her daughter under his tuition. The postal authorities delivered the letter at the house in which Beethoven lived and where he died 92 years ago. The concierge said no such man resided there, so the postman sent it to the dead letter office.

ITALY NEEDS
TOURISTS SAYS
PREMIER NITTI

ROME, Feb. 9.—(By Mail).—Demand for immediate resumption of foreign tourist traffic is general in Italy, despite a shortage of hotels and limited housing facilities. Premier Nitti and other government officials have declared it important to bring foreigners to Italy so as to lessen the balance of trade against this country and improve the exchange rates.

In no peace time within the last 40 years have there been so few Americans in Rome as at present. Their number is said to be about 300. The hotels are virtually all crowded with Italians. Tourists who come without making reservations in advance find it difficult to obtain accommodations. The government requisitioned 50 of the largest hotels in Rome for war work, so that hotel space is far below normal.

Hotelkeepers are making vigorous efforts to recover the use of their hostelrys and each week a few hotels are turned back to their proprietors. But Rome has grown from 550,000 to 800,000 since the beginning of the war and lack of apartments and houses has forced Italian families into hotels as rapidly as room has become available.

Space will be found, nevertheless, for American tourists if they come to Rome, said an officer of the Hotelkeepers' association to The Associated Press. The hotel managers have granted no leases to Italians, and, it is stated, will give preference to tourists. It is pointed out that exchange rates are so favorable to Americans that the charges of Italian hotels would become reasonable.

Italian railways are making preparations for a heavy tourist traffic next spring. The hope is general in commercial circles that Americans will come to Italy in large numbers within a few months. If so, they will not find conditions normal. Motor transportation is said to be almost out of the question. The cost of petrol is prohibitive and it is so scarce that it cannot be had in unlimited quantities at any price. Motor cars also are scarce and transportation by that method high.

HOLLAND WILL HELP CELEBRATE
FIRST LANDING

LEIDEN, Holland, Feb. 8. (By Mail).—Holland's share in the celebration of the tercentenary of the landing at Plymouth of the Pilgrim Fathers will center at Leiden and preparations for it now are in progress.

Many of the English Protestants on the Mayflower lived here for many years after they were driven from England. Others remained at Leiden, not going to America, and principal among these was John Robinson, one of their leaders. His tomb is in the cemetery here and every year many pilgrims come from England to visit the place where he lived.

The American and British ministers to Holland and the Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs are among members of the committees charged with the arrangements. Rev. J. Irving Brown, minister of the Scotch Congregational church at Rotterdam, has gone to America to interest Americans in the Dutch celebration.

The Dutch arrangements include ceremonies at Leiden University and townhall, at Amsterdam and Rotterdam and Delfshaven, the port from which the Pilgrims sailed.

One of the most singular-looking creatures that ever walked the earth or 'swam the waters under the earth', is the man-faced crab of Japan. Its body is scarcely an inch in length, yet the head is filled with a face which is the counterpart of a Chinese collic—a veritable missing-link, with eyes, nose, and mouth all clearly defined.

SCHNAPPS AGAIN BANNED IN RUSSIA

BERLIN, Jan. 23. (By Mail).—The national Economic Minister has abolished the order of March 31, 1915, which prohibited the use of alcohol in the manufacture of schnapps and Germany is, again, to have its cheap and popular beverage. The prohibition of import of liquor remains in force.

MOSCOW, Jan. 28. (By Mail).—An All Russian Congress of Trade Unions will open here on March 1, 1920, which program includes consideration of the organization of production, tariff policy, and international Trade Union movement.

The Government Took Over

The Possession and Management of certain QUASI-public concerns, and, with the assistance of a large part of the previously formed organizations, realized some success in operation, but as a total result the experiment was a failure. Every day that passes furnishes evidence to justify this assertion. The property and businesses taken over have been or will be returned to the owners for the real reason, if not admitted, that the undertakings were too big and complicated for new and unexperienced chiefs to manage. What the results of this experiment will be as to the future value of the properties no one can, with accuracy, predict. It cannot be entirely satisfactory to the owners or, for some years at least, to the general public. There was clearly demonstrated during the war the value and practical benefit of private management as compared with public management. If it be said that government (or municipal) conduct of business has sometimes been successful, the answer is that the same business in the hands of private, responsible individuals, with capital and success at stake, would have resulted more favorably.
