AUSTRALIA WANTS ANOTHER CABLE LINE

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 26.—(By Mail.)—Another Pacific cable to Australia is long overdue, recently asserted Sir Joseph Cook, minister for the navy.

"It is now well over 20 years since the present cable was laid. It has succeeded financially and today is always overcrowded.

Matters of empire communication are becoming daily more imperative and it is high time a forward movement was begun."

The Pacific cable referred to runs from Australia and New Zealand to Canada. It is owned by Great Britain and the three dominions.

A single pound of the finest spider webs would reach round the world.

MORE BOOKS ARE AVAILABLE TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LONDON, Feb. 7.—(By Mail.)—More books are being written today than ever before in the history of publishing, says John Murray, widely known publisher. "The average is better than it was 30 or 40 years ago," he added. "Great numbers of people have contracted a feverish desire to write novels, but many of them have no real knowledge of the author's craft, and are sadly unequal to the task they undertake. Any successful novel now seems to call into existence a veritable host of aspirants who are fated to emulate the happy author."

"Two vital qualities which are often lacking in the novelist of today are a sense of humor and a really clever working out of the plot."

"It is too early yet to say what will be the effect of the war on fiction."

"Recently there has been a tendency for novelists to deal with sex problems in their stories. I sincerely hope this is a passing phase. My experience is that the 'wholesome' novel meets with success just now."

Mr. Murray said the present demand in war books is for histories of regiments and divisions, many of which are being written, and will form the material for a permanent history of the war. This, he said, could not be written for many years.

The population of the Azores is about 245,000, the number of its inhabitants having changed but little in the last century, and, if anything, having diminished.

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND ATTRACTIVENESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 5-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.
