DISCOVERER OF OLD GOSPEL WRIT DEAD

LONDON, Feb. 9.—(By Mail).—The death is reported of Mrs. Margaret Dunlop Gibson, who in 1896, after six visits to Mount Sinai, brought to England the first leaf of what is known as the Hebrew Ecclesiasticus.

With her twin sister, Mrs. Agnes Lewis, she shared the distinction of discovering, in 1892, the famous

OLD AGE PENSIONS.

LONDON, Jan. 30 (By Mail).—The Old Age Pensions Act which came into force January 1, gives pensioners from one to ten shillings a week, in proportion to their other income. No pension is payable when the income exceeds 49 pounds, 17 shillings and six pence yearly.

The fat of sturgeons, when it is fresh, is used as a substitute for oil and butter, and is largely consumed by the inhabitants of the southern districts of Russia, while the skin is used as leather.

Syriac palimpsest of the Gospels, in the monastery on Mount Sinai. It was very dirty, and its leaves were nearly all stuck together, through their having remained unturned, probably since the last Syrian monk had died in the monastery centuries before.

The sisters took about 400 photographs of it. When they returned to England it was identified by Professors Burkitt and Bensley of Cambridge university as the Curetonian manuscript, one of the oldest versions of the Gospels extant in any language. Another expedition was sent to Sinai and the text was copied. Its publication of the text in 1894 marked an epoch in the history of biblical criticism.

Mrs. Gibson was the widow of the Reverend James Young Gibson, a noted translator of Cervantes' poetry.

SEATTLE TO ALASKA AIR RACE PLANNED

JUNEAU, Alaska, Jan. 30.—(By Mail).—Landing sites, floats and other facilities are being sought in Juneau, Ketchikan and other southeastern Alaska cities for seaplanes which will participate in a proposed air race between Seattle and southeastern Alaska next summer.

The Aero Club of the Northwest, with headquarters in Seattle, is making arrangements for the race. Prizes totalling $25,000 may be offered, according to advices reaching Juneau.

Already two well-known aviators, Cliff Durant, former prominent automobile race driver, and Captain Sir Arthur Whitten Brown, non-stop transatlantic flyer, have stated they may enter the race.

Alaskans are hoping that the airplane racers will break trail for airplane mail service to Alaska from Seattle. Mail to America at present is shipped as freight and weeks could be saved in some places if airplanes were used.

BRILLIANT MINISTER VICTIM OF INFLUENZA

Rev. Dudley B. Ashford, Noted Preacher and Lecturer, Well Known on Three Continents, Was Ordered to Give Up Work

Rev. Dudley B. Ashford, Noted Preacher, Lecturer and Missionary

Reverend Dudley B. Ashford is an extraordinary man. Although still on the sunny side of forty, he has crowded more service to humanity into a few years than most men accomplish in a life-time.

Soon after his graduation from Harley College, London, England, he was ordained minister at the famous New Court Congregational church, London. A short time thereafter he was selected to present the cause of Congo Reform and African Missions before the people of Norway, and toured that land with such success that he was greeted by enormous crowds at every meeting.

In 1908, under the auspices of the Colonial Missionary Society, he was sent to New Zealand and for three years labored as a missionary among the Maoris, where his experiences were novel and thrilling.

In 1916 he returned to England and served for three years at Wood Street Congregational church, Cardiff, South Wales, the biggest Congregational church in the British Empire. It was while here that he fell one of the early victims of the great 1918 flu epidemic, an attack from which he had not fully recovered when he accepted a call to the Queen's Road Congregational church, St. John's, Newfoundland, where his forceful preaching soon attracted record congregations.

The strain of this work upon his undermined constitution proved too severe and he suffered a nervous breakdown, from which now, however, he has completely recovered. Moved by a desire to serve his fellow men he has recently written a letter that tells how he was restored to health and strength.

Moved By Gratitude

This letter, addressed to The Tanlac Co., Atlanta, Ga., is an eloquent expression of gratitude and is as follows:

"Gentlemen: Your medicine, known as 'Tanlac,' has been such an inestimable blessing to me, that I feel constrained to write and tell you so. In October, 1919, while a minister of the Wood Street Congregational church, Cardiff, South Wales, I had a severe attack of the Spanish influenza, from the effects of which I never fully recovered. I lost twenty-eight pounds in weight and was unable to recover my usual energy.

"Then in February, 1919, I became the minister of the Queen's Road Congregational church at St. John's, Newfoundland. My ministry was attended with great success, but the strain proved too great for me and I had a serious breakdown. My nerves seemed to go all to pieces and my digestion became so deranged that I could eat scarcely anything. My heart gave me a lot of trouble; it was an effort to walk upstairs and at night I used to lie awake and dread lest my heart should stop beating altogether.

"Then, as a result of exposure one winter's night in a small boat, while in the execution of my duties, I was seized with violent pains in the right shoulder and arm, which nearly drove me to distraction. I consulted doctors and specialists and underwent massage and electrical treatment, without getting much relief. I was ordered to give up all preaching and public work for at least three months, and I began to fear that my health was permanently affected.

He Had Been Skeptical

"I had always been rather skeptical of the testimonials concerning the merits of any medicine, but one day I read the statement of a man whose symptoms seemed to be identical with my own, and his praise of Tanlac rang so true I decided to give it a trial myself. I bought a bottle and its effect was almost immediate. My nervous condition began to disappear and I began to get sleep at night. My appetite so increased that I could scarcely satisfy it, and I found myself putting on weight rapidly. By the time I had taken the fourth bottle, the pains in my arm and shoulder disappeared and I am feeling better today than for a long time past.

"I feel that I should be guilty of base ingratitude if I did not write and tell you what a boon Tanlac has been to me, and I give you this unsolicited testimonial to use as you may think best, in the hope that others may find in your wonderful medicine the means to restored health and strength."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., in Lorella by the James Merc. Co., and in Merrill by the Southern Oregon Drug Co.—adv.

AUSTRIANS SCRAMBLE FOR MEAT SUPPLY.

VIENNA, Jan. 27. (By Mail).—An open sale of several thousand pounds of unrationed foods, such as American and Italian smoked meats was advertised the other day. On the night proceeding several thousand men and women assembled in the market place and stood in the snow and cold until the doors opened, at eight o'clock. Within 15 minutes the supply was sold out, only a small proportion of the crowd being served.

LABOR GAINS IN SCOTTISH POLITICS.

EDINBURGH, Jan. 28. (By Mail).—The progress of labor in Scotland is illustrated by the fact that local governing bodies now include 700 labor and socialist members. In the latest Scottish elections, labor gained 45 seats on the county councils, 154 on the town councils and 300 on the parish councils.

WAR BADGES ARE DISCARDED, ENGLAND

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(By Mail).—War badges are vanishing in England. For some months after the fighting was over almost every man in the street wore some kind of badge. Now they are all disappearing rapidly.

The service insignia which has survived in greater numbers is the silver active service badge, but its popularity may be attributed to the fact that it is the most ornate of the lot. Few men now sport their regimental crests or their honorary ribbons in London streets.

Other things sartorial, popularized during the war, have remained in favor. The officer's "toothbrush" moustache, for instance, continues to be the vogue, and with it generally appears one of the leather-headed swagger canes affected by British subalterns before their demobilization.
