Illinois Miner Is Back on the Job, Making More Money Than Ever in His Life, He Says

"For the first time in fifteen years I can sit down and eat a big beef-steak supper and go to bed afterwards and sleep like a log all night long," said George Sanderson, a well-known miner living at 1616 Smith St., Peoria, Ill.

WOULD CHANGE FOOTBALL RULE

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 5.—John H. Hiesman, coach of the University of Pennsylvania football team, favors the proposal to substitute a certain number of plays for a certain period of time to determine the length of football games.

"It is a good rule," he said, "and would eliminate the old evil of stalling. I do not know off-hand how the details could be worked out, but Pennsylvania's representative should be instructed to support the proposal at the annual meeting of the Rules Committee in New York next month."

ADVERTISING CLUB SLEUTHS JAIL SHARPERS

NEW YORK, Mar. 5.—Ingenious use of advertising schemes by "get-rich-quick" men are being run down by the national vigilance committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which keeps a corps of men at this work almost constantly.

Richard H. Lee, special counsel of the committee, who supervises the work, tells many stories of confidence men and the methods used to combat and convict them.

One man, he says, formed a league of automobile users. The league issued a price list of accessories, all quoted less than possible for the manufacturer to make them.

FRENCH INFANTS GET STRANGE NAMES

PARIS, Feb. 11.—(By Mail.)—Babies in France, in war time or since, have received many topical names, for the most part ugly and incongruous.

An appeal has now been issued that this custom cease, and that the ordinary Christian names, drawn from the Calendar of Saints, should once more become universal throughout the country.

One father wanted to name his son Rintintin, after one of the mascots, Nonette and Rintintin, sold during the war. The registry clerk, luckily for the unfortunate child, refused to register such a name.

NOT BOUND BY REGISTRATION

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Mar. 5.—Voters at the California Presidential Preferential Primary election May 4 may choose their ballot at the polls regardless of party affiliation made at the time of registration.

Cremis quoted from opinions by Attorney General U. S. Webb and Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young, author of the primary election act, and said his statement was intended to correct what seemed to be a widespread belief that when a voter "declined to state" his party affiliation when registering he would be barred at the polls from using a party ballot.

134 MILLIONS W. S. S. SALES TOTAL IN 1919

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 5.—Uncle Sam sold $134,243,697.84 worth of Thrift Stamps, War Savings Certificates and Treasury Savings Certificates during 1919, according to a report of the Savings Division of the Treasury Department.

This investment of $134,000,000, particularly by persons of small means throughout the United States, was made in the face of a wave of high prices and extravagance, the like of which we have not seen since Civil War days.

Treasury Department officials are confident that the 1920 returns on the Government's Thrift activities will show a substantial increase.

The Twelfth Federal Reserve District, which embraces the states of Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Utah, Idaho, California and part of Arizona, including, too, the territories of Alaska and Hawaii, invested $10,290,183.60 in the lowly Thrift Stamp, the War Savings Stamp and the Treasury Savings Certificate.

Equity No. 1121. SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Klamath County. State Land Board of the State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. Mary R. Bassett and William Bassett, Colin V. Dymont, Frederick W. Carstens and Mary O. Carstens, and James A. Baker, Defendants.

You are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons in the Evening Herald, a newspaper, which said date is the 30th day of January, A. D. 1920.

And you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer, or otherwise plead, within the said time, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in its complaint, to-wit:

For judgment against the said defendants, Mary R. Bassett and William Bassett, for the sum of $400.00, with interest upon the said sum from the 9th day of October, 1917, at the rate of six per cent per annum, and the additional sum of $100.00 as attorney's fees; and for the further sum of $133.50, with interest on said sum from the 4th day of October, 1919, at the rate of six per cent per annum and its costs and disbursements herein.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT

In the matter of the estate of H. G. Fairco, deceased.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Klamath County. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed in the above entitled court and matter his final account and that Saturday, March 6, 1920, at 3:00 o'clock p. m., in the court room of the above entitled court in the County Court House at Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, has been fixed by the court as the time and place at which he will hear the said final account and settle the same, and all persons having objections thereto shall file their said objections or appear personally and object to the confirmation of the said account on or before the said date above mentioned.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 4th day of February, 1920. H. M. MANNING, Executor of the Estate of H. G. Fairco, Deceased.

REVISING PENN. CONSTITUTION

HARRISBURG, Mar. 5.—Pennsylvania's Commission on Constitutional Amendment and Revision, which for two months has been considering tentative changes in the organic law of the state has taken a recess until April when it will hold hearings open to all citizens who have suggestions to make.

The present constitution has been in force for forty-five years with but a few changes. The opinion that parts of the constitution are antiquated and that large restrictions crystallized in the appointment of the commission to study the constitution with a view to recommending to the next Legislature whether it should be amended or whether a convention should be called to make an entire revision.

Many changes were tentatively made in the preliminary study. One of them was the insertion of an amendment giving women the right to vote. Efforts are being made to give Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other cities a larger measure of home rule, and changes in the method of making appropriations to charitable and education institutions in the state were also tentatively considered.

RAIL WORKERS MEET TO DISCUSS NEW WAGE SCALE

CHICAGO, Mar. 4.—Representatives of nearly 400,000 members of the maintenance-of-way and railway shop laborers' brotherhoods met today to discuss the formulation of a new wage scale and questions touching upon the enlargement of cooperative factories to furnish commodities to members at cost.

REVISOR'S LETTER

Mr. Lee told one amusing result. A customer complained that a drip pan was missing from a shipment. The inexperienced girl who answered the complaint looked up "gods" in the index and followed it down until she found the word "lost."

After a year's fight, the vigilance committee obtained conviction, and sent the head of the league to prison. Another man formed a company, ostensibly to build tractors, using the name Ford, for Henry Ford was at that time said to be contemplating marketing a tractor.

Mr. Lee tells of visiting a man, now in prison, whom he describes as the country's foremost swindler. He asked for another "international confidence man" who had been associated with the first and learned that they had ceased to correspond.

LEAVES FORTUNE TO REFORM CITY

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—More than $700,000 will be available for the "improvement of governmental conditions in Philadelphia" under the will of Thomas Skelton Harrison, formerly United States Minister and Consul General to Egypt.

The fund will be used, says the trust company that is administering the will, "for the impartial enforcement of all municipal contracts, to obtain prosecution and punishment of persons guilty of violation of contracts with the city or of speculation with its funds, to investigate municipal affairs, to aid the city by advice, to aid in the inauguration of municipal reform and to assist in any special investigation to further the immediate adoption by the city of a wise, clear and accurate system of bookkeeping and accounting, including the frequent publication of lucid statements of the city's financial condition. The interests of no political party will be furthered."

THE MODERN WAY to get results nowadays is to go after them.

A New York woman of more than 80 years, who went to a dentist to get a new set of false teeth, was very particular about the work, explaining that, though she did not expect to live long, she desired to have her corpse look as well as possible.
