HANGAR BUILDING FOR BIG BALLOON

CAPE MAY, N. J., Mar. 11.—The English dirigible balloon, R-36, which the United States navy purchased from the British government for $3,500,000, will be housed at the Cape May navy yard air station. Work has been begun for the erection of a large hangar, which must be completed within the next two months.

At the present hangar, from which the C-5 went out on its disastrous trip last spring, there is being put together, under the direction of an Italian expert officer, a new dirigible, which may have its trial trips in a short time.

The regular complement of the flying station adjoining the naval station is 400 officers and men.

AT THE THEATERS

Red-blooded, adventure-loving motion picture fans today will have their last chance to follow Tom Mix through his spectacular exploits in "The Cyclone," the new Fox melodrama. The final showing of the thrilling picture will be given at the Liberty Theatre tonight.

The picture has created a sensation because it plays so strongly upon the fascination for danger inherent in human nature and so highly developed recently by four years of war. Tom Mix is in a role which brings out his most substantial qualities—daring and physical skill. The story, a tale of the Northwest Mounted Police, is dramatic throughout and reaches a powerful climax in a test where Mix fairly surpasses his own previous record.

Coleen Moore, a delightful type of feminine beauty, plays opposite the cowpuncher star.

"Queer" Carter was the name he had won for himself among the lawless miners of Spanish Bar, one of the most disorderly mining communities in California of '49. He was a blue-blooded aristocrat of a fine old Virginia family, but he made a place for himself among the scum of humanity that called Spanish Bar home.

Women had no place in his life, and when one of the miners proposed to send back east for a cargo of women, Carter was the last to give his consent. But like the good sport that he was he allowed the turn of a card to decide—and he lost.

When the women arrived at Spanish Bar there was among their number a girl who held apart from the rest. She explained that she was not a member of the bridal party. She had come to Spanish Bar to ransom her baby son who had been stolen by Velvet Eddy, a Mississippi packet boat gambler.

Fate played queer tricks at Spanish Bar from that time. A wave of pseudo religious fervor swamped the camp, the Mexican girls of the gambling hell were driven out, and the newcomer after an attack of asphyxia found herself in the garb of a harpy. Then the action of "Sandown Trail," Monroe Salisbury's latest picture, is set in motion. The newest Universal release featuring this star will be seen at the Liberty Theatre Friday.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind incombustible ashes, so the food you eat is broken up, and every day leaves in the alimentary canal incombustible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of leftover waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the bowels the previous day's poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of Limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

All persons having objections thereto will file their objections or appear on or before the date aforesaid, and show cause why said account should not be settled and confirmed.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 10th day of March, 1920.
