RUSSIAN TRADE LURES MANY

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 17. (By Mail).—Representatives of American commercial interests and those of other countries are gathering in Copenhagen and Stockholm as well as in Baltic ports, attracted by the lure of trade with Russia. They think the day is near when the Russian markets will be opened to the world.

As there is scarcely a commodity that Russia doesn't need, the demand for every kind of manufactured article, from hairpins to locomotives, will be prodigious. In the opinion of business men with whom the correspondent has talked, it will take years to satisfy Russia's needs. Owing to Russia's financial and credit conditions and the fact that the people are represented by a government with which the Allies say they will have nothing to do, the difficulties of dealing with that country would appear great.

But trade experts in the Baltic states do not regard the situation as hopeless. In Finland a committee of business men as just been formed to study the question with the object of hitting upon a possible basis of trade.

It is generally believed that when trading with Russia is resumed it will be along the primitive lines of barter. Russia is known to have on hand immense quantities of hides and flax which she wants to swap for foodstuffs, raw materials and manufactured goods.

Estonia has an ambitious program, headed by the proposed Reval-Moscow railway, to become the world's gateway for Russian trade. It hopes also to set up factories to manufacturing plants in Latvia and Estonia employed the best of Russia's skilled labor for working up imported raw materials.

LIBERIAN LIFE IS PRIMITIVE

LONDON, Feb. 23. (By Mail).—Liberia is truly a hermit republic, writes Alan Bouchier Lethbridge, author and traveler, in the Daily Telegraph. The country, he adds, has no roads, no railways, no telegraphs, no steamboats on her rivers nor any practical exploitation of her wealth.

Lodgings in Monrovia, the capital, do not exist with the exception of one place which is conducted by the mayor. This man is an enterprising negro of North Carolina who besides attending to the duties of the mayoralty and conducting his hotel, operates an ice plant and an ice cream parlor which formerly were German property. From these latter his profits are said to be gigantic. He also has "something to do with the Postoffice" and is a police court magistrate.

"In fact," says Mr. Lethbridge, "this remarkable man, starting from nothing, has made himself a Rockefeller of Liberia."

In Monrovia, says the traveler, there are no horses, motors, rickshaws or other wheel vehicles; no street lighting, no drinking water and not infrequently food supplies for the European colony run out and strict rationing is enforced until the ship arrives.

Unless the 23 members of Congress appear at parliament houses properly attired in a black frock coat, patent leather shoes, white waist coat and top hat, they are liable to a fine of $5.00. The thermometer sometimes registers 110 in the shade.

HAY IN DEMAND DESPITE MOTORS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12.—American farmers are not reducing their acreage of oats because of the rapidly increasing use of automobiles and trucks, on the theory that the horse and mule were being made a back number, according to a report by experts of the Department of Agriculture. They have made a special study of the situation and say:

"The number of horses and mules on farms, if decreasing is doing so at a rate so slow as to have little or no effect on the oat crop. Furthermore, statistics show that American farmers are not cutting down the total oat acreage but are actually increasing it. A great number of American farmers, particularly in the corn belt, are justified in making extensive sowings of oats each year."

Budapest seven years ago, 13 countries have extended the franchise to women and thus, for the first time, the congress will have behind it the authority and weight of large bodies of enfranchised women. Spain, however, remains unconverted, Mrs. Sarajini Nisadu, poet and orator, is expected to be among the delegates from India.
