MORMONS DENY
PROMULGATING CHARGE.
LONDON, Feb. 18. (By Mail).—In contradicting a statement in the English press that young women are being persuaded by agents of the Church of the Latter Day Saints

(Mormons) to leave their homes and go to Utah, J. G. McKay, London president of the church, has offered 200 pounds for proof of a single case in which such means have been employed to obtain converts to his sect.

Society

Mrs. Thomas Hampton entertained the Leisure Hour Club at her home on High street Wednesday afternoon.

The members of the Emerald Club have about completed the arrangements for the big dance to be given in the Moose Hall, St. Patrick's Day. It is the initial dance of this newly formed organization and they are determined to make the event one of the most enjoyable of the season. The decorations will be appropriate for the occasion. The music will be the best to be had and those who attend will be assured of a delightful evening.

Mrs. Orva Orem Earnest was hostess to the 500 club of which she is a member, last Saturday evening. The prize was won by Miss Faye Hogue. Refreshments were served. Those present were: The Misses Faye Hogue, Minnie Barnum, Esther and Nellie McAndrews, Jennie and Anna Mae Johnston, Ina Graham, and Jessie Ford.

Thursday evening, March 4, Miss Ione Solomon entertained a number of her friends at a party in honor of her birthday anniversary. Those present were: Ruth Miller, Vivian Robinson, Anna Hackland, Helen Wirtz, Josephine McClain, Thelma Gibson, John and Joe Carter, Frank McClain, Forest Hughston, Valerie Gibson, Everett Moore, Forest Miller. Games and music were enjoyed but an old fashioned candy pull was the event of the evening.

Tuesday evening the Loyal Beverage Class of the Christian church had their monthly pot luck supper and business meeting. Officers were elected for the following year. They are: President, Paul Keller; vice president, Joe Carter; secretary and treasurer, Ruth Miller. After the supper, games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Wednesday afternoon a number of friends surprised Mrs. W. E. Seehorn in honor of her birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mesdames Harry Thrasher, Teitgard, M. L. Miller, Byce, G. M. Thrasher, Joe Smith, Grimes, Seehorn, Misses Ruth Miller, Thomas Hinajosa, and Thelma Gibson. Dainty refreshments were served before the departure of the guests.

Miss Alice McCourt entertained a few friends last night at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Watt in the Hot Springs Addition in honor of Miss Keys, principal of the school at Bly. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards and dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Jule Barlow and Mrs. Harry Poole and the Misses Olson, Keys, Twyla Head, Ina Graham, Myrtle Record, Carol Carter, Geraldine Watt, Agnes Lee and Carol Carter of San Francisco.

The Ladies' Club of the Elks, which was recently organized, will meet next Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The meetings were postponed during the influenza epidemic but the members might assist in nursing, but the plans are to meet regularly in the future.

Miss Ida Momyer is the proud possessor of a new Essex car.

Two complete matinees Sunday, at 1:30 and 3:30 p. m.—adv.
