Our Fourth Annual Spring Opening

Saturday, March 20th

You have waited for months. You have waited through many months of winter and have been longing for the time when you could shed the sombre garments of a season that naturally calls for coats and suits in keeping with the snow and ice, the cold wind and the sleet. So we know you will appreciate this long looked for announcement of our annual Spring Opening.

We ourselves hail it with joy, because we have spent many weeks of hard work and careful discrimination in selecting for you the garments that are certain to merit your praise.

Each department is now completely stocked with latest Spring goods, just in from the eastern markets—it will surprise you to find such complete lines this year when merchandise is scarce.

We do not cry "Wolf, Wolf," but it is only fair to say that labor and fabric conditions are such that merchandise is not easy to obtain from the manufacturers, so we advise that you make your selection as early as possible.

Whether you are ready to buy or not, call during this Opening and see just how we are prepared to serve in the way you like.

Personal Mention

E. W. Chelton, representing the Remington Advertising agency, is in the city from Buffalo, N. Y., in the interests of his company.

Mrs. E. L. Brownell left yesterday for Corning, Calif., for a visit, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stills. She expects to go farther south and spend several weeks in other California cities.

Twenty-four members have already joined the Armenian club.

BORN—March 13, 1920, at their home five miles out on the Olens road, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tramel, a son.

TOOK LONG TRIP TO CONVINCE THEM

J. H. Collman and Oscar Peyton have returned from Portland, where they went on a trip of investigation. The object was to ascertain the merits of the different trucks and compare them with the one they had decided to buy. But they returned wiser and happier men. As Mr. Collman puts it:

"We wanted to get the best, and were not satisfied with what we were shown here. After looking over about fifteen different makes of trucks and seeing them in actual operation in the hands of their owners, we found that we could have stayed at home and bought a Mack truck and had all of our demands fulfilled. Of course, we now know that we have made no mistake, but it took the trip to convince us and we are glad we went."

The Mack truck is handled in this territory by J. H. Garrett & Son.

MEETING FRIDAY EVE. I. O. O. F. TO HOLD

Odd Fellows will hold an important business meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall here Friday night at 7:30. Members outside Klamath Falls are especially urged to make a point of attending. Visiting members are welcome.

DOGS IN "HOCK" DISMAY BROKER

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Mar. 16.—Jacob Goldman, Sacramento pawnbroker, loaned $2 to a sheepman who said he "would be right back," taking two dogs as security. The owner has failed to return and Goldman, when he sought legal advice found that he would have to retain the dogs, as any other property, six months before disposal.

The dogs are healthy and their appetite is good. "They are eating the shop from over my head," Goldman said.
