CHRISTIAN CHINESE VOTED FOR LINCOLN

SHANGHAI, Feb. 10 (By Mail).—The Rev. H. N. Woo, whose death has just occurred here, voted for President Abraham Lincoln and fought with the Union forces in America's Civil War. He was 86 years old.

He had acquired a smattering of English when Perry came to the Far East in 1854 to negotiate the treaty between the United States and Japan and when Perry's fleet returned the Rev. Woo went with it aboard the sloop of war Plymouth as a cabin boy. He saw three years of service in the war and returned to China in 1863 when the Taiping Rebellion was at its height.

Soon thereafter he became associated with the American Church Mission at Shanghai and in 1866 he had a large part in establishing what was known as the tung Jen E. Chu, a free dispensary, from which has grown the St. Luke's hospital of today in Shanghai. He was ordained in 1880 and devoted the rest of his life to the work of christianity.

THAT HAD BEEN HIS CHALLENGE: "Show me a sign from Heaven tailor man, and I may believe in your God." Charley Steel's atheism again brought him trouble. For the fanatical tailor crept upon him while he slept, and in his trembling hand was a little iron cross, heated white-hot. * * * A sign from Heaven * * * branded on his breast. With that he would believe. And Steele slept. This is but one of the many high-lights of drama in "The Right of Way," the Sir Gilbert Parker story in which Bert Lytell is starring. See it Sunday at the Liberty Theatre.

D'ANNUNZIO HAS MANY PECULIARITIES

FIUME, Feb. 18. (By Mail).—Innumerable peculiarities constitute the temperament of Gabriele d'Annunzio. He is superstitious to the core and will never sit down to an ordinary meal unless there are eleven at the table. He is fastidious in his choice of foods and will drink only a special kind of Rhine wine. His favorite dish is "scampi", a small crab-fish found only in the Quarnero. He was a lover of the fish when he lived on the Grand Canal in Venice.

So much did he think of the food that he went on a search of all that was written about them and has compiled already a studious lecture on the subject. The fish resembled in color the American shrimp but is much larger and has a taste milder than lobster approximating the crab but considerably more toothsome. "Scampi" is the favorite seafood in practically all of the north Adriatic resorts.

Besides his partiality for "scampi" d'Annunzio is a lover of ice-cream. He sometimes divides a large cake of it intended for the whole table, into two halves. He takes one entire half himself then gives the other half to the remaining ten at the table. The poet's dining room must be done in red. The walls must be covered with red tapestry and much of the furniture. Then, too, orders are given concerning the color of flowers, morning, noon and night.

SPRING COATS AND SUITS MUCH IN EVIDENCE NOW

Our Garment Department is now displaying an extensive line of new Spring Coats and Suits that have been arriving for the past ten days, and many pleasing models are here awaiting your approval. We have been very successful in pleasing those who have been kind enough to look us over before making their decision, and we will deem it a pleasure to show you the models as they arrive when you visit the department.

THE COATS FOR SPRING

The Coats this season are very elaborate as to color and very simple in style usually; but the models being individual in style, it would be impossible to give a minute description.

The colors include Apricot, Buff, Pekin, Peacock, French Blue, Reseda, and Grey.

The fabrics are principally Polo Cloth, Velour, Camelshair, and Jersey.

Probably the most attractive feature of our garments is the reasonable price attached to each garment, which you will soon detect when on a tour of inspection.

Prices start at $25 and then on up to $60.

Many Believe This to Be a Suit Season

The Suit styles this season are very broad and you may select a Suit to your liking and feel that it is correct in style, for there is no definite set style as to length of jacket, and the trimmings, while principally of braid or embroidery, may be severely plain. The various models that we have received to date are constructed of serge and tricotine, and the graceful lines upon which they are tailored make them appear very attractive, and we would be pleased to have you call and try on as many as you wish and we will appreciate your opinion when finished.

Prices range from $35 to $65.
