FURNITURE DEMAND AHEAD OF SUPPLY.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Mar. 23.—Demand for furniture throughout the country is of immense proportions and it is impossible to make the supply keep up with the demand, according to manufacturers who attended the meetings of the National Council of Furniture Associations held here. There is every reason to believe, these manufacturers say, that the demand will be increasingly great in the future. At the same time it was agreed that the lumber shortage was the most serious difficulty confronting furniture makers and no material relief is in sight at present.

OVERTURE WILL NOT RUN FOR SENATOR.
BEND, Mar. 23.—H. J. Overturf, of Bend, will be a candidate at the coming primaries, for the Republican nomination for state representative. Earlier in the year, Mr. Overturf declared his intention of going out for the legislature, but was uncertain at that time, whether he would seek a place in the upper or lower house.

SOUTH DAKOTA PRIMARY TODAY

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Mar. 23.—South Dakota voters will in their primary today instruct their delegations to the national conventions whom to vote for as a presidential preference on the first three ballots in the democratic and republican national conventions. They will also nominate senatorial and congressional candidates and complete state tickets.

There are three sets of candidates for presidential nomination in each party. General Leonard Wood, endorsed at a republican meeting last December and President Wilson, similarly endorsed by a democratic meeting, are designated as majority proposal candidates. The republican majority slogan as announced in eight words, the legal limit, is "Patriotism, progress, prosperity, honesty, economy, law and order." The democratic slogan is "For lasting peace under the League of Nations."

Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, republican, and James W. Gerard, democrat, were selected for presidential nomination by delegates to the December conference who were not satisfied with the majority choice and they are known as minority proposal candidates. The republican minority slogan is "economy, efficiency, protection, peace, agriculture promoted; one flag." The democratic minority candidate is running under: "Make and keep the world safe for democracy."

Senators Miles Poindexter, of Washington, and Hiram Johnson, of California, are known as republican independent candidates, having been named by filing a petition of at least one percent of the total vote of their party at the last election. James O. Monroe, of Illinois, is the petition candidate so nominated for the democratic ticket. Poindexter's slogan is: "American government free from class or foreign control." Johnson's is "Americanism, freedom of speech, press, justice, with law and order." Monroe's is: "Prevent coal, oil and transportation monopoly by taxation."

LOWDEN BACKED BY OWN STATE

Republicans of Gov. Frank O. Lowden's home state, Illinois, are solidly behind his candidacy for president.

The Illinois Republican State Central Committee at a special meeting held in Chicago, March 6, and presided over by Chairman Frank L. Smith, adopted the following resolution by a unanimous vote:

"Whereas, the life and achievements of Governor Frank O. Lowden, culminating in his great work as governor of Illinois, have made him an outstanding candidate for the nomination by the Republican party as president of the United States;

"And believing that present pressing and critical conditions in our nation's affairs demand a man of sound business judgment and of strong character;

"And believing that the remarkable, ever increasing approval given his candidacy forecasts the great strength he would have as the candidate of the Republican party;

"We, therefore, the Republican State Central Committee of Illinois, in session this 6th day of March, 1920, give our enthusiastic approval and indorsement to his candidacy not only with the justifiable pride as citizens of Illinois but in the larger sense of our enlarged interest and devotion to our party and nation. We urge Republicans of every state to join with us in giving to the nation this sterling American who has firmly and consistently stood with the forces that make for good citizenship, for good government, and for undying loyalty to the country."

INSPECTORS FIND PEST IN SHIPMENT

WASHINGTON, Mar. 23.—A large number of enemy aliens recently reached New York from Europe but the vigilance of the department of agriculture prevented their admission into the country. These enemy aliens were not of the human variety but were the European corn borer secreted in 97 bales of broom corn from Venice, Italy. Interception of the corn, experts said, prevented further spread of the pest which now is known to exist in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York and Pennsylvania.

DISGRACEFUL SCENES AT DANCE CHARGED

Charges that at the public dance at the Moose Hall last Saturday night fully 50 persons, men and women both, were intoxicated, that vulgarity marked the dancing, that he saw at least one exhibition of indecency, that men in the ante-rooms were loudly profane and that he numerous times during the course of the evening spoke to various men and requested them to remember the presence of women and cease using vile language, were made, with added detail by Councilman F. M. Upp at last night's meeting of the council.

"I wanted to see what was going on," said Mr. Upp. "Members of my own family wanted to attend the public dances here and I had heard much about the way in which they were conducted."

He said that he saw several women pass in and out of the lavatories reserved for men and that he presumed that liquor was concealed in these places. He said that parties of men and women were drinking on the streets around the dance hall and that their behavior was boisterous and disorderly.

The council took no action on Upp's statement, nor indicated what its course would be.

Mayor Struble said that the management of the dance at the Moose Hall asked him some time ago to detail a special policeman to maintain order.

"I told them," said the mayor, "that if they could not see to it themselves that the dances were conducted in decent fashion that the dances would be prohibited."

LOSE LAUNDRY IN NIGHT; VALUE $100

Clothing valued, as nearly as value can be estimated, at $100, was removed last night by an unknown thief or thieves from the clothesline in the yard of Louis Biehn at 74 Pine street, near First. The clothes were left drying on the line overnight and this morning the clothespins were scattered over the ground, but with the exception of a few colored garments, the week's washing of a family of twelve was gone.

Bed linen, crocheted wear, and embroidered infants' clothing were taken, all expensive articles that it would cost a great deal to replace. Officers are working on the case but clues are small.

In reporting the matter to the Herald, Mrs. Biehn said she was prompted by a desire to let others profit by her misfortune and refrain from the common custom of leaving laundered clothes out overnight.

It is understood that there have been other losses of clothing from lines in the city, though comparatively small ones.

The White Pelican Baths will open Wednesday evening, March 24, for the public. They will be open every day from two to five and seven to ten. Those wishing to engage the plunge for private parties may see Mr. Mann at baths of Hot Springs Bath House. 22-24*
