MEXICAN TRADE MADE GROWTH DURING 1919

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 30, (By Mail).—The import and export trade between the United States and Mexico in the year 1919 totalled $43,964,114 more than in the year 1918 according to figures announced by the American chamber of commerce in Mexico. The total trade in 1919, in United States currency was $280,378,277. Secretary W. F. Saunders of the American chamber, says this increase is due to the entrance of approximately 100 new American firms into Mexican trade during the past two years.

BIG AMUSEMENT PARK FOR ITALIAN CAPITOL

ROME, March 30, (By Mail).—Rome is to have a large amusement enterprise somewhat on the lines of Luna Park at Coney Island. An immense piece of waste land near the city is to be made into a great park, with two theatres, one covered and one uncovered, each capable of containing 6,000 persons and having enormous stages. All kinds of theatrical and variety entertainments and operas will be given.

BUSINESS IS GOOD IN SOUTH AMERICA

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 28, (By Mail).—Daniel C. Wing, a banker of Boston, Mass., who has been making a tour in Brazil and Argentina to look over business prospects and establish branch banks, is quoted here as saying the business outlook in South America seems very good.

"With an improvement of our shipping facilities," he said, "the United States should be able not only to hold its present volume of trade but to increase it. American business men are studying this field more carefully than ever before and they are going to take more pains henceforward to hold it, to develop it and to understand it."

Mr. Wing said the one thing necessary was that more Argentines should visit the United States.
