AT THE THEATERS

After all, why should she? Meta was aware that Albert's life had not been free from blame. Yet she feared to disclose the one unknown corner of her own past. Crafty sophistication fought against her straightforward, uncompromising New England conscience, with love—which was more than life to Meta—at stake. See "Should a Woman Tell?" at the Liberty Theatre tonight, and learn how one woman faced her Great Decision.

You've heard of insurance pirates? The particular kind we have reference to are those who take old vessels, rebuild them with inadequate machinery, and then bribe the port inspector to pass them as seaworthy. Loaded with a heavily insured fake cargo, they are sent out to sink in mid-ocean and the pirates cram their pockets with their ill-gotten insurance money.

Frank Keenan's latest picture, "The False Code," is a story built by Mrs. Kate Corbaley around the plot of such pirates to enmesh an innocent man. But the man swore veng-ance—and got it. "The False Code" is a thriller—it gives Mr. Keenan one of those virtue tales that have endeared him to a large following. The picture, however, is not merely a "vehicle" for Mr. Keenan, but a rattling good story of plot and counter-plot. It will be shown at the Liberty Theatre Saturday afternoon and evening.

ALBERT R. STEINER, of St. Paul, Minn., who declares he is now able to do twice the work he could before taking Tanlac and that his sister has gained sixteen pounds.

"Talking about things that help people, I have just received a letter from my sister in Waterloo, Iowa, telling me she has gained sixteen pounds in weight by taking Tanlac," said A. B. Steiner, 460 East Page street, St. Paul, Minn., recently.

"My sister was on a visit to me a short while ago, and as she was suffering from stomach trouble some one advised her to try Tanlac, which she did, and as I saw the great benefit she was getting from it I decided to try it myself, for I had been troubled with my stomach for the past two years. I had a very poor appetite, and the little I did manage to eat seemed to lodge right in the pit of my stomach and sour. I would bloat terribly after eating and have the worst sort of cramping pains in my stomach, and at times I had such bad attacks of heartburn I would nearly go wild. My back gave me a lot of trouble, and I had such intense pains in the small of my back I could hardly bend over. To add to my other troubles, about two months ago I began to suffer with rheumatism in my shoulder blades and arms, which got so bad I could hardly do my work and could not even put on my coat without assistance. I was so nervous I could get but little sleep and would roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other all night long, and would get up in the morning all tired out. I was so badly run down and had lost so much weight I was so weak I could hardly get about at all.

"Well, while I have only taken five bottles of Tanlac in all my improvement is simply remarkable. I have such a good appetite I am hungry all the time, and my stomach is in such a splendid condition I can eat anything I want without suffering the least bit from it afterwards. The pains have all gone out of my back and I never have the least sign of the rheumatism. In fact, I never have an ache or pain of any kind. I sleep as sound as a log every night and have gained in weight and strength until I can do twice as much work as I could before I began taking Tanlac. Yes, sir, I can recommend Tanlac after what it has done for me, and I know it will do the same for others if they will only give it a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., in Lorella by the James Merc. Co., and in Merrill by the Southern Oregon Drug Co.—adv.

When Catharine was Empress of Russia she established in southern Russia what was called a "Woman's Republic. It seems that a man who whipped his wife on the street caused a rebellion among wives, who had perhaps also suffered a like chastisement. The men were surprised in sleep, and made prisoners; a deputation of women came by command of the Empress, with the order until countermanded, the women should rule and the men obediently obey. The women now filled positions before occupied by men. The wife of the minister read the service, the wife of the judge sat on the bench, the blacksmith's wife presided at the smithy. The men were their serfs and when they rebelled were sold to distant landowners.

It is estimated that in New York City there are upwards of 150,000 self-supporting women and girls who live in lodgings.

OVER TWICE AS MANY TO EDUCATE BUT ONLY HALF AS MUCH MONEY TO EDUCATE WITH

That is why the Oregon Agricultural College, the State University, and the Normal School cannot maintain themselves on the old basis. In 1913 they

HAD ONLY 2,250 STUDENTS, BUT THEY NOW HAVE 5,400 STUDENTS

In addition, their income in 1913 had twice the buying power of their income in 1920, due to the world-wide rise in costs over which of course they could have no control. The foregoing is one of many equally good reasons why you should vote for the Higher Educational relief bill at the election on May 21. Save the quality of higher education in Oregon, and give YOUR boy and girl, and YOUR NEIGHBOR'S, their rightful educational heritage.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood and poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches; nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoon in a glass of water before breakfast every morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water. Drink and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.
