to attend a religious service until after they're dead and although they are the principal objects of attention at the funeral, it's doubtful whether they get as much out of it as they would from earlier attendance.

at the corner of Sixth and Pine streets, was especially constructed for LIVE ones. Come out to service tomorrow and see if you don't agree with this statement.

We Believe--

a good dependable Electric Service is one of the important factors in community building—

WE BELIEVE it is a valuable asset to a community to be able to offer reliable Electric Service at an attractive rate to industries seeking location—

WE BELIEVE this asset is a direct benefit to every citizen of that community—

WE BELIEVE the responsibility is delegated to the Serving Utility to make every reasonable effort to insure adequate and reliable Service for all purposes required within its territory—

WE BELIEVE the mere name of the Company serving is not material—the value lies in the actual Service rendered.

ACME QUALITY VARNO-LAC

More shabby, surface worn furniture is discarded each year than is destroyed by fire. You insure your furniture against fire. Is it insured against wear? A good piece of furniture will last a lifetime if its surface is properly protected.

Once a desk, chair or table loses its newness—begins to look shabby—it travels a fast road to the junk heap. Renew its surface with Acme Quality Varno-Lac and you renew its life. You've saved the price of a desk, chair or table, and enhanced the appearance of your home. By saving the surface you save all.

Acme Quality Varno-Lac stains and varnishes at one operation producing handsome imitations of expensive hardwoods. Good for floors, furniture and woodwork.

Being in the business, we can probably give you some helpful hints about painting.

AT THE THEATERS

Roy Stewart, big, joyous and debonaire, sat alone, leaning against the wall. One hand was held in a sort of retrospective pose, against his well-built jaw. It looked like a story.

"Anything happened round here today, Mr. Stewart?"

"His eyes shot up suspiciously. 'How long have you been here?' 'Just came in.'"

Roy stood up, and started to walk away.

"No," he advised emphatically. "Nothing happened."

Positively a story. And all the rest of the company were eager to tell it—the spirit of camaraderie of an all-star company.

Solemn agreement has been made among all the cast of "The Westerners," the pietization of Major Stewart Edward White's story, released by Hodkinson, which comes to the Liberty Theatre, Sunday, to bar all fakes, fights in particular. Of all the hunkies there, Roy seemed to have the least cause for worry on this score. So the other principals, including Bob McKim and Wilfred Lucas, stole a leaf from the strategy of Marshall Foch.

Roy, of course, would be fortified against any opportunity they might get to land on him. So they drafted the fair Miss Manning, who plays Molly Lafond, into their scheme. There is one scene where she imparts a smart box on the ear to Cheyenne Harry, Roy, who takes the part, probably pictured it as a rose leaf wafted against an oak. But the wily conspirators represented to her that with the advantage Roy possessed in weight, youth and strength it would be only common humanity for her to drop him a haymaker when he was not expecting it. Once Miss Manning is convinced of a thing, no further instructions are needed. The look that flashed into Roy's eyes when the jar reached him proved this.

Roy stood for the scene twice, apparently thinking deeply. "Rotten!" cried Ted Stoman, the hypnotic director. "We'll have to take that over again."

The amusement on Roy's countenance was so unfeigned that the director had to smile, and spoil the joke.

NEBRASKA STARTS INDUSTRIAL COURT

LINCOLN, Neb., Apr. 10.—Creation by a future state legislature of an industrial court to determine controversies between employers and employees in any business or vocation affected with a public interest will be possible in Nebraska if a constitutional provision is adopted by the voters at a special election next September 21.

This is one of about forty other constitutional changes proposed by the recent state constitutional convention. The industrial commissioner, under the proposal's terms, would also have power to enforce laws against "unfair business practices and unconscionable gains affecting the public welfare." Appeals to the supreme court from the commissioner's final orders would be provided.

WOOL FOR SUIT IS

SOLD FOR $5.85

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Apr. 10.—The Indiana farmer receives $5.85 for the wool in an average suit of clothes large enough for a man weighing 175 pounds, according to Claude Harper, Purdue University sheep specialist. Mr. Harper has issued a statement declaring farmers are not profiting in the sale of clothing.

Mr. Harper says that if a suit is made of the very best grade of wool, which is selling at about $1.90 per secured pound, then the wool in the suit will cost $7.37.
