

Protect Your Property With Certain-teed Roofing

Certain-teed Roofing shelters your property against the severest storms. Driving rain will develop no leaks. Melting snow and ice will find no cracks or crevices through which to enter.

Certain-teed keeps the interiors of your barns and other buildings dry. It protects their contents from damage by water.

For when Certain-teed is properly laid, it is firmly cemented together. It makes an impenetrable one-piece roof.

And Certain-teed has other advantages. It is fire-retarding and spark-proof. It is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to weight.

Yet Certain-teed Roofing costs less to buy, less to lay and less to maintain, than any other type of good roofing.

See your dealer about Certain-teed. He either has it or can get it quickly from a nearby Certain-teed distributing center.

AT THE THEATERS

Owen Moore, one of the best known and most popular male stars of the screen returns to our patrons in a role splendidly fitted to the debonaire care-free manner that is so peculiarly his own. As "Piccadilly Jim," the titular part in his first Selznick Picture, Owen Moore is provided with a role that fits to perfection his marked talent for light comedy of the society-satire type, giving him and humor.

"Piccadilly Jim"—as the story runs—shines as an international gay dog—a man-about-town both in London and New York, entangled in amusing and misleading situations on both sides of the ocean, and Owen Moore plays the role with evident appreciation of its possibilities for clever high comedy. The story has humor, dramatic situations and a logical plot, worked out in a logical manner. Owen adds to the humor, dominates the dramatic situations and, throughout, gives an intelligent, workmanlike rendition of the role.

Pelham Grenville Wodehouse wrote the story—and although Mr. Wodehouse is English born he comes pretty close to being known as the leading American humorist. When the story made its appearance originally as a Saturday Evening Post serial it was acclaimed as an absolute triumph and served to make the name Wodehouse a household word. "Piccadilly Jim" will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight only.

According to English law, a woman witness must raise her veil and expose her face so that the jury may judge by her features as to her truthfulness.

A group of public-spirited men, including several capitalists of note, have been studying the business woman's end of the housing problem, and as a result they now announce a project to build in New York a hotel to accommodate six hundred business and professional women. If this hotel proves a success it will be followed by others in different cities.

One in every six women in New York City is a wage-earner, while in Charleston, S. C., the percentage is one in a hundred.

In the Hervey Islands a bride on the day before the actual marriage walks upon the backs of her future husband's relatives; and on the happy day her relatives form a similar pavement for him, in each case from house to house.

CONTRACTOR GIVES ESTIMATE OF THIS

A man in business for himself in these days of keen competition must be healthy, alert and up to the minute at all times. If he is suffering from any ailment he is not able to give his best to the business and is quite likely to fall where otherwise he would succeed. Therefore it can readily be understood why Mr. August Domke, who is a painting contractor at 655 Hampshire street in San Francisco, is grateful to Anti-Uric and makes the following statement:

"The use of Anti-Uric has fully cured me of rheumatism with which I suffered so long. After experiencing the results it gave me I have the utmost faith in it and believe it will cure all cases of rheumatism. You are at liberty to use my endorsement of Anti-Uric in any way, for I am very grateful to it for what it did for me and I want others to know what a great remedy you have."

It has been demonstrated many times that rheumatism cannot be cured by local applications only. The trouble goes deeper than that and systematic treatment is the only remedy. Anti-Uric has proved itself to be the best treatment today. If you suffer with rheumatism in any form, sciatica, acute, chronic or inflammatory, get an outfit of Anti-Uric from The Star Drug Company and give it a trial, if it does not help you they will return your money.
