"A man is known by the company he keeps" — also by the Hat he wears. Men who wear

Mallory Hats

need have no fear of criticism.

They lend a mark of distinction to the appearance of their wearers.

Wherever smart, well dressed men gather you will see Hats bearing the "Mallory" label.

They are accepted by "men who know" as Gentlemen's Hats.

INTERCHURCH WORLD HOLD DEMONSTRATION

PORTLAND, Apr. 16.—The "citizens' division" quota for Klamath county in the united simultaneous campaign of the churches co-operating in the Interchurch World movement has been set at $2,200. The citizens' division state quota is $240,000. This sum is the total for the general campaign, and is in addition to the denominational quotas, several of which already have been announced.

This does not comprise a budget for the interchurch movement as an organization. The subscriptions to this fund are to be divided among the co-operating churches. In the coming united simultaneous campaign memberships of the various co-operating churches will be asked for millions of dollars to carry on work which is not of a denominational character, but is for the good of society in its broadest sense.

BUT WHAT USE IS MINT TO HIM NOW?

Capt. J. P. Lee, veteran assessor of Klamath county and well-known throughout Oregon, has decided to run for re-election. He has served 16 years and is as full of fire as ever. Capt. Lee won his military title in the Confederate army and won it in action. Needless to say he runs as a Democrat, and usually gets as many votes as all his opponents put together. When he came to Oregon from Kentucky he brought his mint patch with him.—From Oregon Voter, Apr. 10.

INJURED MAN SAYS AUTOISTS AIDED HIM

Sylvan Murray, the Ewauna Box factory employee who was injured last Monday when struck by a passing automobile while crossing the street near the factory, is nearly recovered. He suffered a lacerated arm which is still sore.

Mr. Murray states that the report that the driver who struck him did not stop to assist him is incorrect. The car was owned by Lyle Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howell, and was driven by Lyle Howell's sister, who brought it to a stop as quickly as possible. Mr. Murray says that the motorists' paid the expenses attendant to his injury and showed him every consideration following the accident.
