the power of a good DISINFECTANT

The power of a good disinfectant is almost beyond belief. It is adequate to a guarantee of perfect health. Germs abide unseen, unheard. They are reached only by invisible means of disinfection. Spray or sprinkle or leave around dishes with good disinfectants and the air will become cleaner and clearer and more highly purified and the health will be better guaranteed. We sell the very best disinfectants for home use. Odorless, colorless and complete. A stronger disinfectant for outhouses and outdoors.
