CHILOQUIN NEWS

The Boston of Chiloquin walloped Modoc Sunday. Score 7 to 1. The game was fine and everybody from far and near was present.

Some new tractors and plows and all farm equipments have been added to the White Pine garage. Chiloquin is sure going ahead.

Hotel Chiloquin is running a full house daily. They are cutting out some of the old partitions in order to make room for their guests and take care of the increasing business. The Chiloquin Mercantile company is having some trouble with the safe. The combination refuses to yield.

Wade Crawford has erected his living quarters just back of the White Pine garage.

Joe Ball was a visitor to our town last week.

J. D. Grimes and family are guests at Hotel Chiloquin.

The California-Oregon Power company has a representative looking over the field for business. Chiloquin may have city water. The business men had a meeting at the hotel, but the results of the findings are unknown to the scribe.

Some tractor plowing is being demonstrated by Harkleroad & Crawford, our local garage proprietors.

Fred Hendricks was in town last week on business.

Charles Hood is a visitor to our town.

Reg Schonchin, who has been ill for several days past, is now up and doing.

PROTECT HIGHER EDUCATION IN OREGON BY VOTING FOR THE HIGHER EDUCATIONAL RELIEF MEASURE ON MAY 21

DO YOU KNOW?

That since 1913 attendance at the higher educational institutions in Oregon has increased 150 per cent?

That classroom and laboratory space has increased only 15 per cent, so that conditions are "educationally impossible?"

And that their support from the state has increased less than FOUR per cent since 1913 when the present millage bill was passed?

That the purchasing power of their revenue from the state is less than one-half what it was in 1913?

That these three institutions, which now have 5,400 fulltime students, must reject hundreds if the bill fails?

That it will cost the taxpayer only $1.26 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to protect the higher education of Oregon boys and girls?

LET OREGON DO HER SHARE. IF THE EDUCATION OF THE COUNTRY FAILS, THEN ALL ELSE THAT IS GOOD MUST FAIL. EDUCATION IS BOTH AN INSURANCE AND AN INVESTMENT. ALL STATES ARE EXPECTED TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE SUM OF HUMAN KNOWLEDGE.
