CONFERENCE ON TRADE PROBLEMS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—America's new world trade problems are to be discussed at the National Foreign Trade convention to be held here May 12-15 under the auspices of the National Foreign Trade Council. "The Effect of Being a Creditor Nation" will be the convention theme.

American foreign traders, importers and exporters, from all the states, from 10 nations on the Pacific and from parts of Europe are expected to attend. Convention officials expect between 2,500 and 3,000 delegates.

Importance is attached by officials to this year's convention for, they say, it will be confronted with problems encountered in the first big year of the new American merchant marine operating in the first year of open world trade competition since 1914.

Among the convention session topics will be "Fundamentals of Our Foreign Trade," "Financing Foreign Trade Policies," "Need for a Bargaining Tariff," "Banking Service to Foreign Trade," "The General Press and the Foreign Trade," "American Trade with Russia and 'The Merchant Marine.'"

James A. Farrell, New York, chairman of the National Foreign Trade Council and president of the United States Steel Corporation, will preside. Among speakers scheduled are W. C. Redfield, former secretary of commerce; Captain Robert Dollar, San Francisco shipping man; William Sproule, president Southern Pacific Railway Co.; Dr. Henry Suzzallo, president University of Washington, Seattle; R. M. Calkins, vice president Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co.; J. S. Drum, first vice president American Bankers' Association; W. L. Saunders, president American Manufacturers' Export Association, and Dr. David P. Barrows, president University of California.

This year's convention will be the seventh held by the council. Last year's meeting was in Chicago. Detroit and New Orleans want the 1921 meeting.

THE USE OF these columns will make money for you.

CHURCHES JOIN MOVE TO CHECK EXTRAVAGANCE

LOUISVILLE, May 8.—Leaders of churches, and women's clubs and social workers here are engaged in a city-wide drive to induce residents of Louisville to join in a campaign to cut down the cost of living by curtailing reckless buying at high prices. Thousands have already joined and it is hoped eventually to enlist 200,000 persons.

The movement was inaugurated by Louisville club women. It was endorsed and given impetus by the Presbyterian Ministers' circle, the Crescent Hill Forward club and the Conference of Social Workers. Churches have approved it and United Trades and Labor assembly and the Building Trades council have been asked to join in a permanent organization.

It is proposed to organize a Cheaper Living committee to be composed of representatives of many civic organizations.

Mayor George W. Smith has given the movement a semi-official endorsement by announcing his adherence and Mrs. Smith has promised that her household will be conducted so near as possible along the lines of economy suggested by the promoters of the idea.

The drive against reckless buying is headed by the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Welch, president of the Louisville Ministerial association, who is aided by a committee including in its membership a Roman Catholic priest and a Jewish rabbi as well as representatives of women's clubs.

"Buy no new clothing, shoes or other wearing apparel," is the first plank in the economy platform. "Wear what you have, no matter how shabby or out of style," it continues and adds: "Reduce the consumption of meat in each household; abstain from candy, soft drinks and other confections; deposit money in the bank and keep a record of money saved through practicing economy."

"If the people of Louisville will take this movement seriously," said the Rev. Dr. Welch, "we actually can force down prices here on the necessities of life. Persons generally are spending money like drunken sailors; labor, which should be producing essentials, is devoted to non-essentials. This is not the time for overalls, except for working people. We don't want fads—what we do want is at least 200,000 Louisville people to join this campaign. Let's make it a badge of honor to wear old clothes, carry lunches to the office, abstain from sweets and buy nothing not absolutely needed. Then watch prices drop."

During the last century the famous Yellow River of China has changed its course more than a score of times, and now flows into the sea through a mouth 300 miles distant from that of 100 years ago.
