

SALVATION ARMY PLANS BOYS AND GIRLS INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL

View of Bishop Scott school building and grounds. Boys being taught vocational work at Lytton school.

One of the big phases of the work the Salvation Army is doing in Oregon to prevent the ill of wrong teaching and poverty and to strike at the root of the despair and grief found in the cities, is the training and care of dependent boys and girls. One of the items of the budget to be raised for the Salvation Army work in Oregon provides for the purchase of the Bishop Scott school at North Yamhill as an industrial and agricultural school where neglected kiddies will be educated and made efficient workers so that when they go out into the world they will be an asset to society and not a charge upon the communities of which they will be members. The 1000 acre farm has a walnut grove and other orchards, and, under proper care of agricultural experts who will teach the boys, its productivity will go far toward making the school self supporting. The school is in no sense to be a penal or reformatory institution but on the other hand it is intended to provide sound vocational education for youngsters who, without it, are on the road to bad citizenship.

Society

(Ed. Note)—The following society items were omitted from Saturday's issue, account of lack of space. This will explain any discrepancies in the matter of dates.

The P. E. O. society met Tuesday evening with Mrs. J. V. Brewbaker. After the regular business meeting a drawing lunch was enjoyed. Beside the hostess those present were: Mesdames R. C. Grossbeck, Fred Fleet, Sid Evans, B. C. Thomas and Harry Ernest, and Misses Ida Momyer and Frances Beatty.

Madam Francesca Zarad, who sang here not long ago, under the direction of the high school, met with great success in her San Francisco concert, the press notices all agreeing in proclaiming her "an accomplished artist with a most glorious voice." She has been engaged to sing at the Republican national convention in June, at the Coliseum in Chicago, and at the Democratic national convention which takes place at the Auditorium in San Francisco.

starting June 28. On May 1, she was the special guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Burbank at Santa Rosa, Cal., at the Burbank pageant, given in honor of the plant wizard's seventy-first birthday. Five motion picture concerns took pictures of the pageant by special arrangement. Mr. Burbank publicly announced the name of his new peach creation which he called "The Zarad," in honor of the singer.

Madame Zarad says no matter which way the election goes, she will have helped to nominate a president.

According to word received by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, Mr. Pasmore, the noted vocal instructor, is planning to be here the first week in July, and will give a course of daily lessons to a limited number of pupils. Applications have already been received and the class is nearly complete. Preceding this course of lessons, a concert will be given at the opera house. Miss Cora Miller, of Pine Grove, who has been studying for quite a period with Mr. Pasmore, will be the soprano soloist on this occasion. Miss Miller sang last Sunday at a big Y. M. C. A. affair in San Francisco, and was enthusiastically received. She is said to have "a stunning voice, and most charming personality." Miss Miller is a graduate of our local high school, which fact lends special interest, and her many friends are looking forward to hearing her. In fact it is in response to their urgent appeal that Mr. Pasmore has arranged this concert.

Harriet Pasmore will be the contralto soloist. For the past two years she has been head of the vocal department of Pomona college, Cal., and is now about to go to Paris. She has a most magnificent voice, and has met with phenomenal success in concerts, recitals, etc. She sang with metropolitan artists before an audience of 10,000 in Los Angeles, and met with the unqualified approval of the critics. Klamath Falls people will recall with pleasure the delightful concerts given here by the Pasmore trio, sisters of Harriet, on their return from a number of years in Europe. Mary, the violinist, and Dorothy, the cellist, are in Honolulu, where they spent the winter filling concert engagements. Harriet Pasmore is as great an artist as her sisters, which is sufficient endorsement; and Klamath Falls is fortunate to have this opportunity of hearing her.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Henrietta Melhase entertained the Leisure Hour club at her home on Klamath avenue. Bridge furnished the entertainment of the afternoon at the close of which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. J. B. Hall was awarded the prize for the highest score.

Mrs. S. T. Summers will entertain the Happy Hour club next Tuesday afternoon.

Friday afternoon the Library club held a very interesting meeting in the club rooms of the library. The final numbers of the topic studied during the winter, "The Far East," were discussed and many interesting articles of embroidery and drawings were used to illustrate the talks. Tea was served at the close of the afternoon.

The Woman's Relief corps Monday afternoon, May 3, held a very enjoyable business and social meeting.

It was decided that Memorial day exercises would be given in charge of the American Legion post assisted, if needed, by the Woman's Relief corps committee, consisting of Mesdames Hampton, Myrtle Martin, Amelia Whitlock and Carrie Maier. Mrs. S. K. Ramsby asked for and was given a transfer card of membership to the Ashland corps. It was arranged for Mrs. Flora Emmett to go as a delegate to the state convention at Astoria June 1. The musical program given by Pearl Biehn, Esther Haines, Elizabeth Ramsby and Elizabeth Grigsby was enjoyed by all as well as the delicious refreshments served by the committee.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Robert Dalton, Mrs. Ernest Babb and Mrs. Henry Anderson gave a tea at the home of Mrs. Anderson for the benefit of the Merrill library. Musical and literary numbers filled the program and a handsome sum was added to the funds of the Library club.

Thursday night the eighth grade graduating class and the pupils of the lower grades of the Merrill grammar school gave a May day cantata in the opera house. There was a queen and a May pole and the children acquitted themselves so splendidly throughout the entire interesting program as to reflect great credit upon themselves and their teachers for the careful training they received. Pauline Giacomini gave a violin solo in a most pleasing manner.

The students of the Merrill high school gave a play, "A Southern Cinderella," Friday night in the opera house. The play was well presented and much enjoyed by all. There were several musical numbers given which included a duet by Alma Wilson and Edna Merritt and solos by Miss Pauline Giacomini, all of these young ladies showing a great deal of talent. The proceeds of the entertainment proved the entertainment to be a financial success as $102 was added to the treasury.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Herbert D. Newell entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. James L. Hall, who is visiting here from Pendleton, Ore., and Miss Mildred Collahan, who leaves soon for her vacation. The house was prettily decorated in carnations and the afternoon was pleasantly spent with cards and music after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames M. Callaghan, T. C. Campbell, Estelle Carrier, Charles Ferguson, Fred Fleet, Charles C. Hogue, Fred A. Baker, U. C. Brockenbrough, Elmer T. Ludden, Charles Martin, Herman Stephens, Charles Maguire, George Myer, George A. Stephenson, Harrison Dean, John C. Boyle, Warren Kandy and the Misses Margaret and Mildred Collahan.

Mrs. Rufus Moore entertained the Art Needlework club of which she is a member at her home on South Riverside street Wednesday afternoon. This was a combined business and social meeting and after the election of officers two new members

Mrs. E. P. Lawrence and Mrs. J. M. Carnahan, were invited to join the club, which will make 18 members for the coming year. Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg was elected president and Mrs. J. Fred Goeller secretary. Dr. Sawyer of Ashland, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Fred Goeller, and Miss Elizabeth McCurdy were guests of the club. Refreshments were served at the close of the social hour.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. John C. Brockenbrough delightfully entertained at her home on East Twelfth street in honor of Mrs. James L. Hall who is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Herbert D. Newell.

An impromptu reception was given in the Assembly hall of Sacred Heart church Wednesday afternoon in

Maibohm

Punch—You see it in the low, racy lines of the open models and in the restrained distinction of the enclosed Sedan. You feel it in the ease with which Maibohm weaves its way through the tangled traffic of the downtown sections, and in the forward surge which comes with the straight, level roads of the country. You are conscious of it when passers-by turn for another look and say, "There goes a Maibohm."
