DESPAIRING SCHOLAR
ENTERS MONASTERY

TOKIO, April 18. (By Mail).— Shunzo Ikeda, director of the middle school of Kuro suddenly disappeared a few weeks ago leaving a letter stating that he was dissatisfied with the present state of social affairs and determined to lead a hermit's life. Now he has been discovered in a famous Buddhist monastery leading the life of a monk.

This is an incident showing the spread of the social unrest in Japan.
The old national mentality has greatly been modified since the war and the authorities find it hard to recruit efficient officers for both the navy and army as well as officials for the diplomatic and consular services.
Commercial careers now appeal more to young Japanese.

memorials that could be erected in have been registered on the associa-

"In a Roosevelt road of remem-
