

PERSONAL MENTION

James H. Moore, formerly with the California-Oregon Power Co. of this city but at present connected with the Electric Appliance Co. of San Francisco, is in the city calling on the trade in the interests of his company.

R. R. Cardwell of Fort Klamath was in the city Saturday on business.

Ed Young was a business visitor from Olene Saturday.

C. M. Merritt was in from his Merrill home Saturday.

REPORT TWO KILLED ON TOSPY GRADE

At noon today Harry Poole, manager of the Liberty Theatre, stated that the installation of the new $7,000 photoplayer which arrived Saturday, was awaiting the arrival of an expert from San Francisco. The man promised to be here last night. He was coming by auto and a report received today that two men were killed when a Hudson six went over the Topsy grade last night has Mr. Poole deeply worried.

The Herald was unable this afternoon to get details of the wreck from Yreka in reply to a telegram, but the report of the accident seems to be authentic.

BUSINESS SYSTEM EXPERT IS HERE

H. J. Stewart, well known bookkeeping machine and business system expert, is spending a few days in Klamath Falls and vicinity. Mr. Stewart visited Klamath Falls with the Portland chamber of commerce but fell but this is his first trip into this territory on business.

He is accompanied by C. F. Matson, state manager of the Remington Typewriter company. Both men are enthusiastic over the wonderful growth and enterprise of Klamath Falls, which they declare presents, in their belief, great opportunities for development than any section of the northwest that they have visited—and they cover the northwest territory very thoroughly.

FISTS WILL FLY ELECTION NIGHT

Well, well, the good old days are coming back. Oldtimers will remember those piping times, before the pall of "innocuous desuetude" descended, when the election day that passed without a dozen lively fistic encounters was a political rarity.

The political editor of the Herald may not know it, but the sporting editor is in a position to predict that there will be at least four lively scraps in Klamath Falls on election night, next Friday May 21.

They'll be pulled off at Houston's opera house in a regulation squared circle and here's how they'll mix it:

Ten rounds of lively slugging between Young Souza, well known to local fans, and Frenchy King of Sacramento, a dynamic fighter with a good reputation in the California capital. King says he knows the size of the job he has undertaken, but that he has the goods on the local scrapper, tough as he is. Winter M. Knight, local promoter is confident that in King he has secured a man who will fully test the ability of the rapidly improving Souza, who has shown himself too hard for local men to handle. The fighters are slated to enter the ring at 118 pounds.

Bobbie Allen and Young Eaton are scheduled to box a six round semi-final on a winner-take-all agreement. Red Moore, 145 pounds of well trained huskiness, will meet Joe Blackburn, claimed to be an equally rugged specimen, in a four round session.

Knight's curtain raisers are always good and the one for Friday night should be no exception. The Chiloquin Bearcat, a moniker fully descriptive of his battling tactics, will box four rounds with Kid Covert. Both have been in the local ring so often that they need no introduction, but this is their first time within the ropes together.

The doors will open earlier than usual on account of the election. The time is 7 o'clock. Tickets are on sale at the Rex cafe at usual prices.

WOMAN DID NOT ATTEMPT TO CONCEAL HUSBAND'S NAME

Special Officer Barnett, who made the arrest in case of Alfred Turpen, alleged forger who was bound over to grand jury action Saturday, states that the statement in the Herald to the effect that Mrs. Turpen refused to recognize her husband or in any way tried to aid him in concealment of his identity, was erroneous. Mr. Barnett says that Mrs. Turpen dealt truthfully with the officers from the beginning of their investigations.

AT THE THEATERS

The fact that true, fine comedy lies near to pathos and to tears has found no clearer illustration than in the latest "happy comedy" of Albert Ray and Elinor Fair, who have made their fame as stars in Fox photoplays and who appear at the Liberty Theatre tonight in "Love is Love"—a comedy that demands considerable serious acting on the part of the agile young Ray and strong emotional work by Miss Fair. While it is crowded with laughs, it shows admirably the fine shading from humor to pathos and the remarkable adaptability of this brilliant young couple to handle both.

PACKERS INDICTED

NEW YORK, May 17.—The federal grand jury at Brooklyn has returned indictments against Morris and Company and the Cudahy Packing company, charging profiteering in foodstuffs.

FIRST VODVIL AT MONDALE THURSDAY

The Mondale theater announces that the first act of vaudeville booked with the Pantages circuit will be shown next Thursday evening. From then on there will be a regular schedule.

The Mondale was forced to hold two matinees yesterday afternoon to accommodate the crowd and there was a full house at the evening performances.

The illustrated song film, "Wonderful Mother of Mine," pleased the audience as was shown by the applause. The ballad was sung by "Ted" White, manager of the theater who has a lifetime of trouping experience. Mr. White is making songs between pictures a regular feature.
