SMALL PEOPLE ASK ENTRANCE TO THE LEAGUE

NEW YORK, May 18.—Applications by four of the smallest countries in the world, Iceland, the Republic of Georgia, San Marino and Luxemburg—for admission to the league of nations, which are to come before the council of the league when it convenes shortly in Rome, Italy, have awakened interest in these lands and peoples.

Iceland, which until 1918 belonged to Denmark, has a population of approximately 70,000 and an area of 35,000 square miles. It was discovered by Norsemen in the ninth century and continued as a republic until 1292 when it united with Norway. In 1389 it was taken by Denmark in whose hands its remained until two years ago, when, in full agreement with the mother country, under a principle of self-determination Iceland proclaimed its independence. King Christian, of Denmark, honored his former colony by sending a warship to salute the Icelandic national flag.

The Danish government in 1913 forbade the manufacture or sale of intoxicants and the parliament of Iceland subsequently enacted a prohibition law making the 19 syssels or parishes in the country's three amts or provinces forever "dry." Icelandic women have long had the right to vote. Reykjavik and Akreyri, the principal villages of Iceland, are on the coast which is a belt of rich pasture land. The interior is a vast plateau 2,000 or more feet above sea level composed largely of sand and lava desert and practically destitute of grass or trees excepting a few hardy beeches. There are no roads. For centuries Iceland was the center of volcanic eruptions the lava fields covering an area of 4,500 square miles.

Georgia, formerly ancient Iveria, a part of Russian Trans-Caucasia, is populated by a people who call themselves Kartli and who are known, by neighboring Persians as Guri. The seats of government are Tiflis and Guria. In the third century they constituted a mighty state which lasted until 1424 when it was divided into three parts. In 1800 Georgia was incorporated in the Russian empire. The population of Georgia at the time she declared her independence of Russia, on May 26, 1918, was about 3,000,000. Eighty per cent of the Georgians are farmers. On March 17 last the independence of Georgia was recognized by Italy. Under the Turkish peace treaty Batum is to become a free port.

San Marino or Sammarino, is not only one of the smallest but one of the eldest republics in Europe. It is enclosed by three Italian provinces and consists of a craggy mountain 2,420 feet high on which is the town and some circumjacent terraces with four or five villages. The population prior to the war was about 8,000. San Marino furnished an army to the allies. The chief industry is agriculture including the raising of cattle. The legislature of the republic is composed of a senate of 60 members elected for life equally from the ranks of peasants, citizens and nobles. Two presidents are chosen by the senate every six months.

Luxemburg, which lies between Rhennish Prussia, Belgium and Alsace-Lorraine, and which was occupied by the Germans during the war, was made a grand duchy in 1814 by the king of the Netherlands. In 1867 it was declared neutral territory by the treaty of London. It has belonged, however, since 1842 and until the signing of the Versailles treaty to the Vollverein or German Custom's union. The population of Luxemburg before the war was approximately 200,000 living in an area of about 1,000 square miles. Walloon French is spoken in a few villages but the language of the people is chiefly a German dialect.

After the armistice in the world war, the Germans evacuated Luxemburg, a revolution occurred but was halted by the allies. The American troops passed through the country and were well received. The Grand Duchess Marie whose abdication had been demanded by a mob, fled from the country and a republic was proclaimed. This new government, however, existed only a few hours. The parliament called for a plebiscite to decide the future form of government and the people voted for a restoration of the grand duchy, electing as grand duchess, the Princess Charlotte, sister of Marie.

MADE-IN-OREGON DISPLAY WEEKS

PORTLAND, Ore. May 18.—"Oregon money, Oregon made, should stay in Oregon for Oregon trade" is the slogan for the Made-in-Oregon display weeks being held in representative cities of the state this month. Corvallis has just closed a successful one and Roseburg is scheduled another to open May 24. Bend has set May 31 for its date and The Dalles, Pendleton, Eugene and Hood River will shortly place four more on the calendar.

SOLDIER ASKED TO SIGN DEATH CERTIFICATE

PARIS, April 24. (By Mail).—To be asked to sign his own death certificate was the experience recently of a French soldier named Bregot. He has been reported killed in the war but was found in good health at Belfort by a gendarme who thrust the death certificate into his hands, asked him to sign it and left without explaining the reason for the extraordinary request. Bregot has begun what is expected to be a long legal process to prove that he is still living.

"Wasn't it luck--" that I happened to see it advertised. It was something I had been wanting for a long time—and only by the merest chance I noticed where it was being sold!"

She only happened to see it advertised. And she considered herself lucky.

But think how often she must have been unlucky—how many good things she must have missed by not being a regular reader of advertisements.

It will pay you to read the advertisements in this paper. —to make a practice of reading them.

BECAUSE:

- They carry the news of reliable stores in your town.
- They tell you where and how you can buy to best advantage.
- They tell you of new and better things.
- They save your time and money and make your shopping easier.
