SCHULDERMAN OR LOCKLEY

The big surprise of the state campaign will come in the fight that is being made for the office of secretary of state. Early in the game the general impression was that Koser would have a walk-away. The number of candidates increased, each picking some of the Koser strength, until it began to look like a free-for-all with Koser as the favorite. Then the unexpected happened—Fred Lockley jumped into the ring and with his coming consternation spread to the Koser following, for Lockley's connection as one of the editors of the Portland Journal, his extensive acquaintance throughout the state and his ability as a campaign manager were recognized as factors that would hurt Koser more than any of the other candidates. And it did. He has made such inroads on the Koser vote that even Koser's friends admit that the fight has shifted to Schulderman and Lockley.

The loss of Koser is bad enough, but the election of Lockley would be a calamity. Oregon has had all of the influence of Jackson of the Oregon Journal that it wants and it is not going to re-establish it in the capitol at Salem by the election of Lockley. Schulderman has demonstrated his ability as an executive during his term as corporation commissioner and if the people of the state elect him as their secretary they will be making a wise selection and elevating a man who has served them well and honestly. In selecting Schulderman the state will suffer no loss through the retirement of Koser, who is admittedly an able official. Schulderman is also recognized as fully as capable as Koser, and no greater compliment could be paid him. Lockley's entrance into the fight was an unfortunate one, but the people of the state should not permit themselves to be cheated by reason of it.

WILEY'S OUR MAN

This is going to be Klamath county's year, so far as voting for its own interests are concerned. In some of the other counties that uncomplimentary reference, "Klamath hog," has been made in this campaign. Maybe we are hoggish, but if standing up and fighting for what we are entitled to, if trying to prevent the stealing of the California highway, if trying to send to the legislature a man whom we all know will guard our interests day in and day out, if seeking to secure senatorial representation when our turn comes is being "hoggish," then we plead guilty. Klamath county does not care what unfair charge may be made. It is not going to step aside and sacrifice its interests this year as it has time and time again. It is going to fight to the finish for Wiley, for Sinnott, for Overturf, for Brattain, for these men are better fitted for the office they are seeking than are their opponents, they will best serve the interests of their constituents in general and the vital interests of Klamath county in particular.

The big fight must be made for Wiley. He needs every vote he can get. It depends upon his home county whether he is to be our next senator or not. His nomination means his election. If you want a man on guard who will be personally interested in the welfare of Klamath county, then there is but one thing for you to do—go to the polls Friday and vote for Wilson S. Wiley.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN

The indications for Friday's preferential primary elections are that Senator Johnson of California will be the choice of the Republican voters of Klamath county for the Re-

Equip Your Smaller Car With Goodyear Tires

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3-, 30x3½-, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the smaller Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these smaller Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of approximately 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of the smaller cars.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof $4.50 bag

GOOD YEAR

On Friday, May 21 VOTE 310 (X) YES

No. 310 is the Higher Educational Tax Act for the protection of the great work of the State University, Agricultural College, and Normal School.

DO YOU PAY TAXES?

If so, that is one of the biggest reasons why you should vote and work for passage of No. 310. The surest way to increase taxes is to cripple education. The United States is the safest, freest, healthiest, wealthiest, happiest country on earth today, with the highest standard of living. It never could or would be so without its educational system. The most heavily taxed countries are those that have neglected to provide state education for all persons alike.

HIGHER EDUCATION PAYS THE STATE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS

It pays ethically, culturally, intellectually and morally, as well; but if a man puts the worst construction possible on the case—if he asks, "Will it pay me in my pocketbook?"—then, too, it is possible to answer "Yes. Higher Education has paid Oregon millions of dollars, and that benefit comes back to each individual directly or indirectly."

ALL STATES SUPPORT HIGHER EDUCATION

To cripple the University, Agricultural College and Normal School, is to strike Oregon not only a financial, but a moral blow that is unthinkable!

VOTE 310 X YES

and protect three institutions that not only have excellent standards, but are among the most economically administered in the United States, as the statistics of the United States Bureau of Education will prove.

publican nomination to the presidency, with Governor Lowden of Illinois running second and General Wood practically finished.

Reports from Northern Oregon are in line with this estimate also. Senator Johnson's campaign having taken a decided impetus from the action of the Herbert Hoover managers in having their man withdraw at the eleventh hour to help Wood.

Whether Senator Johnson or Governor Lowden wins the Oregon delegation, it is certain that in either one the Republican party will find a candidate who is sure to win in November.

Both of these undeniably great Americans have enviable records as statesmen and executives. Senator Johnson's term and a half as governor of California proved his fitness to handle the business of a government, and his record as United States Senator is perhaps the most patriotic of any member of the present senate.

Governor Lowden is a self-made success who has demonstrated his executive ability in the governorship of Illinois, and both Senator Johnson and Governor Lowden appeal strongly to all Oregonians who admire fearlessness and courage in public officials.

It is a good thing that the intent and purpose of the Hoover campaign, which was no more than an effort to hinder Johnson and Lowden and help Wood, has been made obvious to the electorate of this state.

People do not like to be bamboozled, and it is better to discover an attempt to bamboozle and nip it in the bud than it is to find it out after the election.

A NEEDED MAN

When you send a man to congress to represent you, you want a man who is not a trickster. You want a man who is big in his campaign, who is above the petty tactics of the ward heeler, who is a man's man and fights a man's fight. That is the only kind of a man who is ever heard of in Washington and that is why Congressman Sinnott is today one of the big figures in the legislative affairs of the nation. It is pitiable when any other candidate adopting methods that cannot but indicate contempt for the intelligence of the average voter, no matter what the office he seeks, but it is doubly so when he is seeking an office that demands the highest degree of intelligence, ability, integrity and statesmanship. How fortunate we are that we can turn to a man like Sinnott at such a time.

If H. J. Overturf wanted to insure his election to the state legislature, he could have done so by making a deal that would have cost Klamath Falls and Klamath county dearly if consummated. He could have gone into the scheme to change the route of The Dalles-California highway. This scheme has for its purpose the placing of this city on a branch line. Overturf has also lined up for Wiley and is working for his election. These two acts on the part of Overturf are sufficient to justify every voter in the county voting for him. But on top of this he is a clean cut, honest, straightforward fellow who has no special interest he wants to serve, who from experience knows the needs of his district, for as a rancher and lumber jack, logger and mill man he has learned from personal experience the needs of all these interests. Klamath county should make it straight Wiley, Overturf and Brattain for her legislative ticket. We will then know we are safe.

UNDERWOOD'S DOUBLING FILM DEVELOPING DEPARTMENT

Underwood's Pharmacy is adding new equipment to the kodak developing department and when the work is completed the dark room capacity will be doubled and able to handle 40 reels of film at one time. The pharmacy is making another improvement at this time, the effect of which will be more appreciated next winter, in the installation of a heating system connected with the city heating plant.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY

To the voters of Klamath county: When I announced my candidacy for District Attorney of Klamath county, I expected to visit before the primaries every locality and so far as possible meet all the voters, especially of the Republican party in which I am registered. But unexpected business duties have made it impossible for me to do so. I wish, however, to assure you that I do not undervalue the importance or advantage to both the candidate and the voters of familiar acquaintance and exchange of views. Never-the-less I trust that my long residence in the county and my general reputation for conscientious service and my wide experience both in legal and business affairs will justify your favorable consideration and vote next Friday, May 21st. Very truly yours, C. C. BROWER. (Paid Advertisement.)
