Twenty-One Big Events Just One Good Thing After Another

Chautauqua brings six days of wholesome entertainment, splendid lectures and inspiring music. Twenty-one different attractions—all at a price so low as to appear almost unbelievable in these days of "sky-the-limit" costs. Two dollars and fifty cents buys a season ticket admitting to every program of the week. High School students $1.50, children's tickets $1.00. Below are a few of the feature events.

TAYLOR'S SINGING BAND

An all-American musical organization that will "strike twelve" with you in their two big programs on the fourth day.

"POLLYANNA"

A superb interpretation of the play "Pollyanna" by Pauline Lucile Mayo, one of the great dramatic readers of the country.

NG POON CHEW

Noted Chinese editor, humorist and statesman. Lecturing on "China's Problems, National and International." Third night.

THE MORRISON GIRLS

A sterling musical company coached by Boss Gearhart Morrison. Featuring splendid vocal and instrumental music.

JAMES A. BURNS

"Burns of the Mountains," prominent Kentucky educator—the man who conquered the feuds in the Cumberland mountains. Second night.

ROYAL PHILIPPINO SEXTET

A stringed orchestra from the Islands which is rated as one of the finest native musical organizations. Two Concerts Last Day.

EVELYN BARGELT

Prominent cartoonist from the Chicago Art Institute who won unusual honors abroad as an A. E. F. entertainer. First Night.

KATE UPSON CLARK

Noted editor and author. One of America's most brilliant women. Lecturing on "The Mother of the Future." Fifth Night.
