Society

Thursday forenoon little Jean Grace Groesbeck entertained a party of her juvenile friends on the lawn at the Groesbeck home on Ninth street. Games were played, a dainty luncheon served, the little tots each departing with a colored balloon as a souvenir. Those present were Pearl Jean Wilson, Marie Collier, Mary Thomas, Kathryn Brewbaker, Frank Fleet, Jean Ernest, Percy Evans, Jean McCall, Jean Grace Groesbeck and Stewart Groesbeck.

Mrs. Silas Merrick Hathaway and small son, Silas, Jr., arrived Friday evening from Los Angeles, Cal., to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newell for some time. Mrs. Hathaway is a niece of Mrs. Newell.

Miss Armstrong of the high school faculty was hostess to the senior class at a theatre party at the Liberty and supper at the Bluebird on Tuesday night. The refreshments, including the cakes and ices were carried out in the class colors of green and white and pink carnations were used for the table decorations. Speeches, music and dancing entertained the students to the close of a delightful evening.

Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. J. Fred Goeller were hostesses to the Art Needlework Club, Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Goeller on South Riverside street. The house was prettily decorated in Spring flowers and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Robert A. Emmitt will entertain the Happy Hour Club Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Robertson entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. William Ganong, a recent bride who before her marriage was Miss Carrie Oleson, special representative of the Red Cross. The entertainment was in the nature of a shower and the guest of honor was the recipient of many lovely gifts from the friends invited. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and dainty refreshments were served during the evening. The guests were: Mesdames George Watt, N. D. Stewart, H. W. Poole, E. T. Luden, Charles Curran, Harry Ackley, J. E. and Carranza, who had been officially recognized as the head of the de facto government by the United States in October, 1915, he insisted on the respect by the United States of Mexico's sovereignty and the concession to his government of reciprocal rights of invasion. He maintained his position despite the crisis caused by the clashes between Mexican and American soldiers at Parral and Carrizal, but when war seemed unavoidable Carranza succeeded in stemming the tide by his proposal for the appointment of a joint commission to settle the difficulties amicably. The proposal was accepted by President Wilson and the deliberations of the commission resulted in the withdrawal of the American army and the restoration of friendly relations between the two countries.

Presents
D. W. GRIFFITH'S GREAT PHOTOPLAY
"SCARLET DAYS"

May 22, 1920.

Dear Public:

Under the magic hand of D. W. Griffith how many dead civilizations have returned again to life? He has restored Babylon and Palestine; in "The Birth of a Nation" he made live again the days of the Civil War, and in "Hearts of the World" he brought the battlefields of Europe to our doors.

And now he has revived what is undoubtedly the most picturesque and strangely fascinating period of American history—the days of '49. Days when life was at its fullest, days of adventure and romance, days of robust gallantry—scarlet days.

That's the title of this new Griffith production—"Scarlet Days." It is not a wild west story—it is a story unlike anything ever done. What Griffith presents on his colorful backgrounds is human life. Wherever life is intense and vivid, be it in the living present or in a forgotten age, Griffith finds his material.

You will love the characters of the story—Alvarez, the gallant bandit; Randolph, the heroic aristocrat; Chiquita, the bandit's sweetheart; Rosy Nell, and all the others whose lives become real in Griffith's hands.

The picture is a Paramount-Artcraft, enacted by a typical Griffith cast—Richard Barthelmess, Clarine Seymour, Carol Dempster, George Fawcett, Adolph Lestina, Walter Long—you know them all from former Griffith pictures.

The Star Theater will show "Scarlet Days" on Sunday and Monday. We consider it one of the big events of the year. When you see it you will feel that way about it, too. Two complete matinees Sunday afternoon starting at 1:30 and 3:30.

Yours,

BUY AN OIL LEASE IN TEXAS

A few days ago an oil well was brought in, in Caldwell County, Texas, and as always leases have gone sky high in price.

But we will still have a few oil leases left for sale in the adjoining counties at $12.00 per acre in 5-10-20 acre tracts.

Better see us at once as there are a number of wells drilling in all counties we have acreage in, get in ahead of the drill and your chances for gain are enormous.

BRASS BAND WILL PLAY FOR DANCE TONIGHT

The big wind-up comes tonight and among the features is the Jitney dance at Houston's opera house, to which everybody is invited. Plenty of fun for all will be provided and a real brass band has been mustered to furnish music for the occasion.

HAD A HORSESHOE

BARTLETT, Texas, May 22.—Hugh Morrison contends that he is lucky. Morrison was riding a horse and did not see an approaching Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train. The train hit the horse, killing it instantly. Morrison landed on the pilot of the engine, sitting erect in his saddle. When the train stopped about a hundred yards away, he, having suffered only slight injuries, stepped from the engine.

ACME QUALITY VARNOLAC

More shabby, surface worn furniture is discarded each year than is destroyed by fire.

You insure your furniture against fire. Is it insured against wear? A good piece of furniture will last a lifetime if its surface is properly protected.

Once a desk, chair or table loses its newness—begins to look shabby—it travels a fast road to the junk heap. Renew its surface with Acme Quality Varno-Lac and you renew its life. You've saved the price of a desk, chair or table, and enhanced the appearance of your home. By saving the surface you save all.

Acme Quality Varno-Lac stains and varnishes at one operation producing handsome imitations of expensive hardwoods. Good for floors, furniture and woodwork.

Being in the business, we can probably give you some helpful hints about painting.
