

JOHNSON LEADS IN COUNT OF STATE BALLOTS

PORTLAND, May 24.—(Latest Report)—Senator Johnson had a lead of 1,307 votes over Wood in a compilation by the Portland Telegram at 1 o'clock. The returns were from 35 counties, some complete. Curry has not yet reported.

PORTLAND, May 24.—The results of Oregon's presidential primary were still obscured by uncertainty early today. While Senator Johnson still leads his lead has been cut to 510 over General Wood, according to tabulations made by the Portland Oregonian, based on the complete unofficial returns of Malheur county, except one precinct, and the complete returns from fourteen other counties and partial returns from the remainder.

YREKA TO CROSS BATS WITH K. F.

What promises to be a ball game worth seeing will be played at the Modoc ball park next Sunday.

Yreka, with one of the strongest teams in southern Oregon and northern California, will tangle with the home team. Yreks suffered a defeat some weeks ago but since then have cleaned up on all of them, including Weed. They defeated Weed yesterday by a score of 8 to 3.

Jimmie Clark, who is managing the locals, received word that Yreka would be strengthened by a new battery from the city. Yreka is preparing for the worst.

Despite the strength of Yreka, the home team has just as much of a chance to win. Authorities who understand baseball, have stated—after seeing the game last Sunday—that Klamath has the makings of the best team in the history of local baseball.

The Klamath team is made up largely of ex-service men, including two first-class pitchers, one who pitched for the 12th infantry, also a man who played on the all-army team at Camp Fremont. Jimmy Clark, well known to all Klamath fans, will captain the team and also do the catching. Ginger Freemont, who played on the famous team of 1916, will be on the job next Sunday.

The grounds are being put in condition and will be in first-class shape by Sunday.

New uniforms are on their way here and are to arrive Wednesday. The business men have contributed liberally in starting the club and they are all behind it in moral support. With this in consideration Klamath is on the way to a very successful baseball year.

CHAUTAQUA IS OPENED

The chautauquus, Klamath Falls' annual good time week, was opened this afternoon in the big brown tent on Klamath avenue. The opening concert was given by the Williams Male Quartette of Cincinnati, O. The quartette appears again tonight at 8 o'clock when they give forty minutes of music as a prelude to Evelyn Baggott, the cartoonist-entertainer of the Chicago Art Institute.

The Williams male quartette is one of the finest touring the country and their programme is characterized by an originality distinctive of this organization.

Miss Baggott, cartoonist, gives the same program that won fame for her as an A. E. F. entertainer. The afternoon programmes commence at 2:30 and evening programmes at 8 o'clock.

The chautauqua programme tomorrow afternoon is given by New York artists trio and Sam Glithwell, "the peptimist," as lecturer.

COURTHOUSE ARGUMENT IS QUICKLY HEARD

It may be six weeks before a decision is handed down in the case of J. M. Dougan against Klamath county, the celebrated courthouse litigation, according to statements of those who attended the hearing of arguments in the case before Judge Hamilton at Roseburg Saturday.

The case was argued for plaintiff by Harrison Allen of Portland, Evans Reames of Medford and C. F. Stone of Klamath Falls. The argument for the county was presented by Jay Bowerman of Portland and C. M. O'Neill, Fred Mills and E. L. Elliot of Klamath Falls.

The argument was not long on either side and easily concluded Saturday. The documentary evidence introduced is voluminous, filling a large sized packing case. The transcript of testimony taken at the hearing here covers more than 500 pages. Briefs containing 100 or more typed pages will be filed by either side.

Just how deeply the court will delve into this mass of reference matter is speculative, but the extent of his investigations will have some bearing on the date at which a decision may be expected. In any event, however, it is not believed that he will be able to give the local case much attention for three weeks as his trial calendar is full for that time and disposal of cases set thereon is just beginning.

MAIL WITHHELD BECAUSE OF LOST ADDRESS

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Liberty Bonds to the value of $127,150 belonging to 2,543 ex-service men have been returned to Washington by the postoffice department because of incorrect address, according to Lieutenant Colonel Mathew C. Smith, head of the service and information branch of the war department, in a statement issued today. There are also on file with the zone finance officer 7059 discharge certificates which cannot be delivered to their owners because they were mailed in without return address, or mailed out and returned undelivered. Alphabetical lists by states of these undeliverable discharge certificates have been furnished to all senators and congressmen, with the request that they be given the widest publicity possible.

In April 7,384 Liberty Bonds to the value of $369,200 were mailed, making a total of 1,077,978 bonds of various issues to the par value of $53,898,900 now delivered to ex-service men.

During the same month the $60 bonus was paid to 3,960 ex-soldiers who did not receive it at the time of their discharge. Bonus claims settled to date total $98,640,120, showing that 1,644,002 ex-soldiers who did not receive their bonus have now been paid. Additional travel pay to the amount of $2,859,111.40 has been paid out to date to 152,662 soldiers.

Ex-service men who still have claims to be adjusted with the various government agencies should address Lieutenant Colonel Mathew C. Smith, Council of National Defense building, Washington, D. C.

WEATHER REPORT

OREGON—Tonight and Tuesday, fair; light and heavy frosts in the early mornings.

PRIMARY RESULT STILL OBSCURE CANVASS STARTS

Until the official count of Klamath county returns from Friday's primary is completed no definite tabulation of figures can be made. The official canvass started this morning and should be completed by noon tomorrow and perhaps will be finished today.

The canvassing board is making slow progress on account of the number of "written-in" candidates.

The unofficial returns are little changed since Saturday's publication in the Herald. Nearly half of the county precincts are unavailable for purposes of an unofficial count because of the failure of the election boards to return a loose statement as required. Half the boards disregarded instructions and enclosed the unofficial statements with the remainder of the election data and locked them in the ballot boxes, where they are entirely unavailable until the boxes are unlocked by the official canvassers.

Johnson has a lead in the presidential race in this county of 500 votes on a conservative estimate, it is averred by those in close touch with the election.

Wiley for senator will have a majority over Jay Upton of 600 it is believed, but this is not enough to insure his election and reports from other counties in the district would indicate that Upton will carry the election.

The close race on the local ballot is between C. C. Bower and William Marr for district attorney, with Bower leading by half a dozen votes.

Report by telephone from Lake county today said the same uncertain conditions existed in the count there. Indications are that Johnson will carry Lake county by 200 votes. Upton is leading Wiley 2 to 1 and Overturf is the last man on the ballot in the contest for state representative.

Lakeview retailed a report from Bend that Deschutes county went 5 to 1 for Upton, which is partly confirmed in a report received at Wiley headquarters giving Upton Deschutes county by 350 votes.

The ranch orchard was in full bloom, the weather man had prepared a day especially to the order of picnicers, all things worked harmoniously together and when the tired crowd reached town late in the evening they were unanimous in voting that it had been a flawless and perfect day.
