

MORE MUSIC AND LESS GAS

You are going to buy less Gasoline and consequently have less pleasure riding this year so why not seriously consider buying right now that Musical Instrument that you have been intending to get for the last several years?

Musical Instruments have not raised in price in proportion to most commodities but that is no reason that they won't before the end of the year.

We have a sizable stock of Baby Grands, Pianos, Player-Pianos, Victrolas and Records on hand—a better stock than otherwise probably because we follow the one business, "Music" exclusively.

It costs you nothing to look over our stock of both new and taken in exchange instruments and we believe that the prices and terms will prove a pleasant surprise.

LONG PINE NEWS.

Quite a large crowd attended the picnic Saturday at the school grounds. Following was the program: Marching song, by the school; vocal solo, Miss Harriet Lawrence of Merrill; recitation, Phelps Lewis; organ solo, Charlotte Geertson; a French duel, by the seventh and eighth grade boys; recitation, Lois Bunnell; organ solo, Vesta Buesing; poppy song, by the girls; monologue, by Elmer Buesing; recitation, Thelma Lewis; Irish jig, by Charlotte Geertson and Vesta Buesing; "The Census Taker," by three boys and three girls; "Good Bye Song," by the school.

Dinner was served by the ladies after which the Lone Pine and Merrill boys played baseball. Score 26 to 23 in favor of Lone Pine. Grandpa Tallman left a few days ago for his home in Sisson, Cal.

Miss Waive Drew came out Saturday to attend the picnic and stopped over Sunday at the Enman ranch. Miss Florence Wilbur left Monday for her home in Portland.

Miss Myrtle Steppenson is spending the week at the Enman ranch. L. F. Geertson and son, Rolf, and Esten Kiger have gone down to Tule lake to put in the grain crop.

In a waltzing match which took place in Italy a few years ago eight couples competed, and commenced to dance at ten o'clock on Sunday evening. Nobody ceased until compelled by exhaustion, and at midday on Monday two couples were still staggering around the room.

TOM CORWINE GREAT ENTERTAINER

Possesses Remarkable Powers of Imitation and Mimicry.

Tom Corwine is a prince among entertainers. He fills every minute with fine fun and laughter. All that he does is original. He imitates no one and no one can imitate him successfully. The Joliet Daily News says: "Tom Corwine has the most marvelous throat in existence. He is a living wonder."

possessing four distinct throats in one, so that he can make a concordance of sounds that no other voice has ever accomplished." He imitates birds, animals and mechanical contrivances with a perfection that is uncanny.

His humorous sketches are irresistibly laughable and have won for him a nation-wide reputation.

He appears in two programs on the fourth day of Chautauqua.

Mrs. Barney Hall, who resides on Sixth street, will leave in the morning for Dayton, Ohio, called by the illness of her mother.

Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British Ambassador to the United States, is probably the only man living who has been an army general, a plain "Mr." and a knight, all in the short space of four days.

James Byrne, a New York lawyer, is the first Catholic to be elected to the Harvard corporation, which dates back 284 years to 1638. And with one exception, he is the first man to be elected a fellow of the university who is not a resident of the vicinity of Boston.

A Herald Want Ad will sell it.

Kuppenheimer Good Clothes

Some clothes have style thrust upon them—rather, pressed on them. It doesn't last.

Kuppenheimer clothes have their style elegantly crafted into them. More, the quality of the materials used holds the style there. And those important "unseen" parts of these beautiful garments are sincere—withstanding hard usage. An important thing to remember—the "part unseen" in the clothes you buy.

Don't take a chance this season—go to a reliable dealer who handles Kuppenheimer good clothes
