

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND ATTRACTIVENESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 5-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not painful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

AT THE THEATERS

Miss Margarita Fisher wears a gown that cost $2,000 in her latest American-Mutual play, "Impossible Susan." It is one of the gowns called for by the script wherewith Bernard Marshall, Susan's self-appointed millionaire guardian, tries to prove his contention that clothes make the woman.

The story calls for "a heap o' dressin'" to quote Eugene Field, and Miss Fisher undoubtedly adorns the duds she wears. All the costumes worn in the play were made in America, a fact on which the young star dilates with pride.

"I have always contended that American designers of women's clothes were equal to the best foreign designers," remarked Miss Fisher a few days ago. "In this picture I have had a change to prove my contention."

At the Mondale tonight.

Thrills, surprises, amazing climaxes—in short, all the elements that made "The Mystery of the Yellow Room" the favorite with lovers of detective fiction, coupled with the additional dramatic qualities which the screen affords, offer two hours of unalloyed enjoyment to Liberty Theatre audiences tonight, where Gaston Leroux's internationally famous novel is presented in picture form. The picture, produced by the celebrated French director, Emile Chautard, is supported by an able cast and is excellent entertainment.

"The Open Door" starts with a fight and ends with a grip on your heart-strings.

The production is a tensely emotional mystery-drama made by Art-class for Robertson-Cole from the story by Garfield Thompson.

If you like mental excitement and emotional punch in your film folder, this picture ought to fill the bill.

The story is one that reaches down into your cardiac region and plays a throbbing melody on your heart-strings, then reaches up into your mental hood and starts your brain motor hitting on all cylinders trying to drape out the mystery and the final solution of the plot.

Just about the time you think you're making some speed, a plot comes up and passes you on high, and you realize that some of your brain cylinders are missing.

"The Open Door" is, without doubt, one of the greatest mystery dramas ever filmed. It is the story of a man who assumed the responsibilities for the crime committed by another, and voluntarily went to Sing Sing and served a fifteen-year sentence in order that his daughter might have the good things of life that he was unable to give her. He entered into an agreement with the man who was guilty that upon his release he should be paid $25,000, and should reclaim his daughter, who, during his incarceration was educated and cared for as the daughter of another.

The action starts with his release from Sing Sing, and proceeds through a maze of plot and counter-plot that involves a mysterious murder, blackmail, and the final self-sacrifice of the ex-convict when he realizes that to reveal his identity to his daughter would blast her hopes of happiness.

At the Liberty Wednesday only.

BROKERS PAY U. S. 50 MILLION LICENSE YEARLY

NEW YORK, May 25.—The government derives more than $50,000,000 annually in revenue from brokers' licenses and stock transactions in New York, says William H. Edwards, collector of internal revenue for this district. Six thousand stock brokers, he said, pay a license tax of $50 and in addition a special tax of $100 or $150 according to the salable value of their seats on local exchanges.

Of the 4,000 commission brokers, those who are members of an exchange where produce or other wares are traded in pay a yearly tax of $50. A two-cent tax on shares traded in on the stock exchange nets the government several thousand dollars daily. Unlisted corporations having a home office in the United States are subject to the original issue tax of five cents a share on all stocks valued at $100 or fraction thereof.

The monthly sale of documentary stamps averages $3,000,000 more than half of which is in stamps of $1,000 denomination, or approximately 1,500 $1,000 stamp sales for stock transactions, Mr. Edwards said. To supply the demand a reserve supply of stamps valued at $10,000,000 always is maintained in the custom house vaults.

The value of the otter is fully recognized by the Chinese, who train them to fish, and a well-trained otter will bring several hundred dollars.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is aching; if what you eat sours and forms acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before eating more food.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless.

Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast.

Don't Be Content With "Hobson's Choice!"

More than a hundred years ago, Toby Hobson of Cambridge kept the only horses for hire in town. But his customers had no choice save to take the horse nearest the door, whether little or much to their liking.

So "Hobson's Choice" has come to mean: "Take this or none."

Today, through the advertisements in this and other papers, you have all the world to choose from. Yes, through Advertisements, the world comes to your door with its wares. Advertisements give you the opportunity for comparison and selection of almost anything you want or need.

Advertisements are an accurate index of what other people are buying, selling, wearing, eating, doing, learning; of what the world is accomplishing and how, where, and by whom it is being accomplished.

Form the habit of reading advertisements just as regularly as you read the front page. You will find it profitable and mightily interesting as well.
