Telegraph Tabloids

LONDON, May 28.—Hostilities between Russia and Japan in Siberia ceased late Tuesday, according to reports from Vladivostok dated Wednesday. Paris also reports the arrival of the Russo-Japanese armistice commission.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—By a vote of 6 to 3, the senate agricultural committee today ordered a favorable report on the McNary bill providing for an export embargo on sugar.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—A resolution which viewed "with grave concern" conditions in Ireland and "expressing sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice" was reported out of the house foreign affairs committee today by a vote of 11 to 7.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The conference report on the long pending water power bill was approved today by the senate and now goes to the president.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—An effort to override the president's veto of the Republican peace resolution failed in the house today. The vote was 219 in favor of overriding the veto, and 182 against, or 29 under the required majority.

The National League of Women Workers is planning to hold a four-day conference at Bryn Mawr College in June. It will be the second "college convention" which the league has undertaken, the first having been held at Wellesley College in 1918.

ENGINEERS LOOK
LANGELL VALLEY SYSTEM OVER

LORELLA, May 28.—Sunday morning C. T. Darley, in company with Consulting Engineer Heney, arrived in Langell valley from Klamath Falls to inspect the irrigation system of that locality and the sites for dams. They were accompanied by Attorney Fletcher, or the firm of Ferguson & Fletcher, and Archie Wishard, secretary of the association, and H. D. Newell, head of the reclamation service. It seems the approval of Engineer Heney is essential to the placing of the bonds. At 1:30 the entire party returned to the home of W. D. Campbell where a most bountiful dinner was served and much enjoyed by all. Dinner was served to 16. Mrs. Campbell was assisted by Mrs. Alfred Keller and Mrs. H. E. Winnard.

Schools Closed

The Lorella school closed last Friday and the teacher, Miss Cole, has returned to her home in Grants Pass. Miss Cole is a most successful teacher and her work the past year has been very satisfactory. It is hoped she will return next year.

Mrs. William Greig of Sterling, Colorado, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. E. Winnard. On last Saturday Mrs. Winnard entertained at luncheon in honor of her sister.

Last week Mrs. Alfred Keller closed a most successful year of teaching in the Brown district on the south side of the valley. The week before school closed Mrs. Keller gave a party for the children at her home, which was much enjoyed by all present.

Ladies' Aid Meeting

Thursday, May 13, the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. W. Fordney.

On Thursday, May 20, Mrs. Gus Keller entertained at luncheon a number of ladies in honor of Mrs. William Greig.

Gas Shortage Felt

The farmers in this vicinity are much handicapped by the shortage of gasoline. Much necessary work is delayed and business trips of importance have to be postponed. It is sincerely hoped a supply will be on hand to enable those who have to do pumping for irrigation to go ahead with their work.

The Woman's club met with Mrs. Will Campbell Thursday afternoon, May 27.

Ed McBroom of Barnes valley has just purchased a new Dodge car.

Mrs. L. Gerber of Horsefly is attending Chautauqua this week in Klamath Falls.

These Tell the Story:

CLEARFIELD PAPER SUSPENDS

CLEARFIELD, Pa.—The Daily Public Spirit has suspended, after 20 years' publication. The high cost of print-paper and labor was given as the cause.

TWO TOWANDA PAPERS QUIT

TOWANDA, Pa.—The Bradford Star, issued for the past 25 years, suspended May 1 on account of newsprint and labor troubles. Publication will be resumed when conditions return to normal. The Reporter Journal, which had been published for 80 years, discontinued publication April 29 for the same reasons.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Several hundred daily and weekly newspapers were put out of business last year by the shortage of print paper, it was stated Wednesday at the final conference of members of the Inland Daily Press association.

"The best remedy is to sit tight and eliminate non-essentials," Robert R. McCormick, one of the editors of the Chicago Tribune, advised the members, "such as cartoons and extra illustration. We have to pay the price, for if we don't others will, and they will use print paper for soap and other wrappers."

WANT REGULATION OF PAGES

MC ALESTER, Okla.—Resolutions strongly urging Oklahoma editors to use every possible means of conserving print paper were passed at the closing session of the Oklahoma Editorial association here last week. The resolutions urged every publisher in Oklahoma to not only economize on print paper, but to raise advertising rates.

ST. CATHARINES

JOURNAL SUSPENDS

TORONTO.—The Evening Journal, the oldest St. Catharines newspaper, has suspended publication. It has been published as a daily since 1859, the present proprietor, ex-mayor J. M. Elson, having acquired it in 1910.

LIMA EVENING PAPERS MERGE

LIMA, Ohio.—The Times-Democrat was purchased by the Lima News Publishing company on May 1 and the News and Times-Democrat were merged as the News on May 3. W. J. Galvin, publisher of the Times-Democrat, becomes business manager and a stockholder in the Republican-Gazette, morning newspaper.

FT. FRANCES JUMPS

PRICE TO $120

TORONTO.—There is trouble again with the paper mill at Fort Frances, Ont. Immediately following the decision of the Supreme Court that the Board of Commerce did not possess power to regulate the sale of newsprint, the Fort Frances company jumped the price to its western Canadian customers to $120. It has now notified a number of them that it cannot let them have any more paper. The situation in Manitoba and Saskatchewan has become acute as a result of this action.

MAY REDUCE TO WEEKLIES

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—The Michigan Association of Home Dailies has decided to issue tri-weekly editions after July 1 and weeklies after October 1, if the high price of paper continues. This will effect 26 daily newspapers with circulations of less than 5,000. Frank H. Moses, president of the association, and manager of the Marshall, Mich. Chronicle, was delegated to testify before the senate committee investigating the newsprint famine.

Newsprint in Italy is selling at $34 to $38 a hundred pounds.

You will see from the above, all of which appeared during the past week, that the newsprint scarcity and high price is not confined to Klamath Falls or any particular section—it is general throughout the United States and Canada. The Herald has felt the pinch since last fall. The subscription rate should have been raised months ago, but it was kept at the old figure in the hope that some other way out could be found. That hope, however, was useless and The Herald, like all dailies throughout the nation, had to bow to the inevitable and raise its subscription price.

Beginning June 1, the subscription price of The Herald will be:

One Month	$.65
Three Months	1.75
Six Months	3.25
One Year	6.50

SPECIAL OFFER

No assurance can be given at this time that these rates will remain in effect for any stated length of time. Indications now are that they will have to be advanced again by October 1, unless some of the plans under consideration for economizing on the use of paper will result in a decided saving. The Herald has no desire to place an extra burden upon its subscribers, any more than subscribers have no desire to place an extra burden on The Herald. For that reason a special subscription offer is being made during the month of May, whereby you can effect a big saving for the next year. In order to make this special offer it will be necessary for The Herald to invest all of the money paid on these special subscriptions in paper. This offer closes May 31. Under this offer the rates will be:

Delivered by carrier within the city, 1 year.....	$5.00
Delivered by mail within the county, 1 year.....	4.00
Delivered by mail outside the county, 1 year.....	5.00

SURE SOME SHOW!

AT THE THEATERS

According to assistant District Attorney H. J. Hendricks of New York, in a statement issued recently after seeing a certain motion picture, it is proved by criminal records that no person can be successfully a silent partner in crime. Mr. Hendricks stated his opinion in reference to the dramatic examples of this fact presented in Vitagraph's picture, "The Sins of the Mothers," which will be presented at the Mondale Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Anita Stewart is star of this production. She plays the role of Trixie Raymond, whose mother is revealed as the secret owner of a gambling resort. Trixie inherits her parent's gambling instinct, and the latter, shocked at discovery of this fact, sends the girl to a convent to cure her.

The case of Mrs. Raymond stands as testimony to the assertion that a person cannot conceal their secret connections with a criminal or illegal enterprise. Mrs. Raymond keeps her gambling resort in operation under the management of a man who poses as owner.

In the end a dozen different events bring about the revelation of the woman's partnership.

GREAT NOVEL OF THE SEA

Maurice Tourneur has a penchant for the sea. In "The White Heather" and "The Life Line" he demonstrated his unusual ability to produce thrilling scenes of the ocean in its varying moods on the screen. Now he has taken one of the most famous stories of all times, Joseph Conrad's "Victory," and used it as the basis of a motion picture that portrays in vivid detail the tale of love, adventure and revenge in the South Sea Islands. It is a Paramount-Artercraft picture and will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight and Saturday.

Mr. Tourneur loves to deal with mankind in the rough. His faithful reproduction of life in the slums and low dives on the wharves of London are well known. "Victory" has given him the opportunity of making a picture exclusively with characters who love passionately, see red when they hate, and are quick with the trigger and knife. Life among the European wraiths who have drifted to the South Seas reverts to the raw elements and these are the materials out of which Joseph Conrad weaves his gripping stories and Maurice Tourneur his entertaining pictures. Jack Holt, Seena Owen, Lon Chaney and Wallace Beery are in the excellent cast.
