Memorial Day--1920

AT THE GRAVES OF AMERICA'S DEAD, FRANCE IS LAYING FLOWERS ON OUR MEMORIAL DAY. IT IS A DAY WHEN WE SHOULD REMEMBER NOT ONLY OUR OWN HEROES WHO FOUGHT TO PRESERVE THE REPUBLIC, BUT THE "BRAVE DEAD" OF ALL NATIONS BURIED ON THE BATTLEFIELDS OF THE GREAT WAR, WHO FOUGHT TO BRING GREATER FREEDOM TO THE WHOLE WORLD

It is our duty now as Americans to pledge ourselves to bring to final consummation the end for which these men fought, to determine that their sacrifice shall not have been made in vain

FIRST OPEN AIR DANCE JUNE 2

The open air dancing pavilion at Seventh and Pine streets will be "christened" next Wednesday evening when the American Legion gives a big open-air ball. The pavilion is now completed and has 7000 feet of smooth floor space for dancing. On occasion, when dates are open, it will be available for band concerts and public gatherings of all sorts.

"I believe the people of Klamath Falls will appreciate this effort to give them a place where healthful, wholesome recreation may be indulged in without the attendant features that are sometimes criticized in public dances," said Mr. Parker today.

"Nothing that might draw criticism from any fair-minded person will be tolerated by the management of this enterprise, and no one will more quickly check any symptoms of disregard of the conventionalities that should attend the conduct of persons meeting at a public dance than I will."

Mr. Parker believes that dances in the open air are more healthful, there will be no sudden transition from a heated room to the colder outer air, and believes they will provide a more wholesome environment in other ways.

MEMBERS OF 23RD ENGINEERS BANQUET

Former comrades of the 23rd regiment of engineers are planning a farewell banquet to R. E. Hurlburt, resident highway engineer, at the White Pelican hotel Monday evening. Mr. Hurlburt leaves Tuesday morning for Montana, having been transferred to the United States reclamation service. He was with the reclamation service when he entered the army.

All ex-members of the 23rd engineers are cordially invited to attend the banquet and farewell reception. Those who are promoting the affair have personal knowledge of eight or nine men who were with the regiment and feel that there may be others here who are unknown to them. They assure any man who served with the regiment of a hearty welcome at the White Pelican at 7 o'clock Monday evening.

"SEE CRATER LAKE" PORTLAND ADVISES

Through the co-operation of the chamber of commerce and the Women's Ad club of Portland, 4,000 letters a day are going out of the Portland postoffice bearing a stamp with the slogan "See Crater Lake." Here is a rare bit of advertising of one of Klamath county's great assets which is really an asset of the state and nation and unique among the world's wonders.

The political gossip of the time adds daily to the uncertainty of the Presidential campaign, but Chauncey M. Depew, in the glad confidence of a youth of 86, predicts victory for his own party.

It is contended that as a result of declining immigration there is a shortage of nearly 5,000,000 unskilled workers in American industries. But if high pay is a criterion, there are no longer any unskilled workers.

for to Italy steals his money and his boy, how the child is restored shortly after he discovers oil in the neighborhood of his squalid shack, making him fabulously rich, serve to adorn the tale and supply the laughter and the tears.

The picture is commendably produced, with absolute fidelity to its minutest detail. The scenes in Arizona were taken on the desert, and in its every feature the production reflects careful and conscientious direction. The picture will be shown at the Mondale Theatre, beginning Sunday and Monday.

He had a wild and woolley Western way about him and when he breezed into Dunhaven Castle and announced that he was Lord Jim, there was nobody who cared to openly dispute his claim. Then he met THE GIRL and all the in-laws around the castle got a taste of rough-riding romance and scrapping—and there was one monied Duke who got more than his share of the latter. See Louis Bannison, the smiling cowboy, in his latest Goldwyn-Batswood production, "A Misfit Earl." At the Liberty tonight.

BEND WELTERWEIGHT LOOKING FOR MATCH

"Speck" Woods, Bend welterweight, accompanied by his manager, Tommie O'Connell, arrived in town last night from the north and is seeking to arrange for his appearance on the next card presented by the local boxing commission.

Woods came directly from Prineville, where at a snappy smoker this week, he appeared in the main event with Joe Kalinski, winning by a knockout in the third round.

The Bend scrapper has had some lively engagements around Bend and Prineville during the winter and if the right sort of opponent is found should make a good drawing card for a local match.

Manager O'Connell also has the supervision of Young Taylor, who was talked of as a match for Joe Souza at the last exhibition here before Trench King was secured. Taylor is also anxious to get a match here.

Woods has a number of friends in Klamath Falls, having worked with the reclamation service here a couple of years ago.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, says that the Democratic National Convention must repudiate President Wilson's stand for unmodified ratification of the Peace Treaty, or else the party will face a catastrophe in the coming presidential election.

The chief constable of Greenock arraigns American whiskey now imported into Scotland as being terrible in its effects, poisoning, maddening and leaving nervous and depressed those who drink it. Apparently the famous "old Scotch" was after all only a soft drink.

AT THE THEATERS

CHILD SUPPORTS HIS FATHER!

The strange news of a three-year old boy supporting his father, a strong robust man, came to light today. The boy is named Bob White, and has been supporting his parent for several months. Before your eyes rise too fast, let it be explained that Bob White is only the stage name for "George Behan, Jr.," and is supporting his noted father in his latest photoplay, "Hearts of Men."

The production serves to restore the photoplay favorite to the screen after a long absence, and it is the first time in which he has appeared before the motion picture public under his own management. It is being presented by Hiram Abrams.

"Hearts of Men" is a type of photoplay that can be truly described as "making dimples to catch the tears." The picture quickly alternates from humor to pathos, from comedy to drama. The plot recites the ludicrous and tragic adventures of a poor Italian who sells his florist shop in order to buy some "high, dry land," on the instructions of a doctor, to save his mother's failing health. The unscrupulous real estate man who makes the deal certainly fills the description, and gives him a plot of ground very high and dry—in fact, the highest and driest part of the Arizona desert. Thither he departs with his aged mother and little motherless boy. How he surmounts the prejudice of his rough neighbors and the unyielding barrenness of the land, how the wife whom he sends
