SHASTA VIEW NOTES

Dry cropping is about over, the lake land nearly all sowed and irrigating the order of the day.

Mrs. B. J. Daniel of Sutter, Cal., was a visitor at J. L. Bailey's recently. Mrs. Daniel and two daughters, Gladys and Marjy, are spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voss of Merrill.

O. E. Hunt, daughter Beulah, son Cecil, and Earl Wilson were in Klamath Falls Thursday to attend Chautauqua and report being well pleased. Miss Beulah remained for a few days' visit.

John Johnson and wife of Klamath Falls were guests at C. M. Kirkpatrick's home Sunday and called at H. E. Wilson's place.

The helping hand ladies will be entertained by Mrs. W. Crandall Wednesday, June 2nd.

I believe we might have quite newsworthy letters every week from Shasta View if everybody would take a little pains to drop us a few items but news in the country is more difficult to obtain than in town "Mickle," and I hope you will "keep at 'em" until everyone interested in their own locality will wake up to their responsibility and help keep us "on the map."
