Society

Mrs. R. J. Sheets entertained in honor of Mrs. C. B. Bryan, of Grants Pass, Ore., and formerly of this city, last Tuesday afternoon. The motif of this social afternoon was to renew old friendships. At the close of the pleasant afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Those invited were Mesdames J. F. Gouler, E. Bice, A. Bustamante, H. Richardson, C. R. DeLap, A. Crystal, Jesse Bailey, Garret Van Riper, E. Beckett and Mrs. Ella Carr.

Mrs. S. B. Evans entertained Monday evening in honor of Mrs. John Hamilton, who left this city to make her home in Corning, Calif. "Five Hundred" was the special feature of the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present, besides the guest of honor, were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Evans, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Record, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Greenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. Frank Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. W.

IT HAS always been a pleasure to us to bring before the public of Klamath Falls the very best expressions of the art of moving pictures, and to this end we have spared neither work nor money. Your appreciation has led us to believe that we have in some measure succeeded in this aim in the past, and to the list of beautiful and dramatic triumphs which we have shown on the screen of The Liberty we are proud to add which we feature tomorrow. Many of you have read the book or have seen the stage play, and it has been transferred to the screen in more vivid colors and much more realistic than the limitations of the spoken drama or cold type permit.

M. Coseboom, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Garcelon, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. House and Frank Evans.

The girls of the Kedron club and friends, about 30 persons in all, enjoyed a picnic on the river last evening.

The P. E. O. Society went at the home of Mrs. Andrew Collier Tuesday night. An interesting program was given on the life of Joaquin Miller. Mrs. C. V. Fisher was initiated into the club.

The Women's Missionary society of the Christian church held a very interesting meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Seehorn. Twenty-five ladies were present.

After an enjoyable program the following officers were re-elected for the coming year: Mrs. E. J. Mayer, president; Mrs. W. E. Seehorn, vice president; Mrs. A. Bainter, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, treasurer. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

AT THE THEATERS

Lovers of romance are finding an irresistible appeal in the screen adaptation of Richard Harding Davis' novel "Soldiers of Fortune," a Realart special produced by Allan Dwan, which shows at the Liberty Sunday.

Allan Dwan closely followed the book so as to preserve in full all the dramatic, romantic and adventure situations related in the story.

Norman Kerry and Anna Q. Nilsson, principals in this photoplay, are admirably suited for the parts in which they have been cast.

The latest World release, starring the well known actor, Montagu Love, will be the attraction at the Liberty Theatre on Monday.

It is a comedy with all sorts of funny situations.

The story is a new one—that of a young fellow from the country who comes to New York and doesn't fall a victim of the bright lights. But when he returns to the country on a visit to his people, the fact that he has lived in New York gets him into all kinds of trouble.

There's a laugh every minute in this picture. Be sure to see it and give yourself a real treat.

At the Liberty Theatre, on Monday.

Acting as a paid professional hostess of fashionable house parties, Katherine MacDonald, in the film version of Robert W. Chambers' novel, "The Turning Point," which will be screened at the Star Theatre, Saturday and Sunday, shows such an uncommon occupation to be practical and well suited to the needs of a woman of gentle breeding and refinement who has been forced by adverse circumstances to make her own way.

And Miss MacDonald, as Diana Tennant, member of a prominent San Francisco family suddenly thrown into bankruptcy, seems to know how to do it to the queen's taste. Diana, with her sister, Silvette, and the unsolicited aid of James Edgerton, partner in the ruined firm of Egerton-Tennant Company, make great progress in the home of H. Rivett, a millionaire socially ambitious for his children.

So great is this progress in fact that Gaylord's son falls in love with Silvette, and Diana—well, everybody loves her.

BANK DEPOSITS

Three years ago the combined deposits of the Klamath Falls banks were $1,900,000. Today they are $4,300,000.

Our own bank has grown from nothing July 16, 1918, to $800,000 at the present time, and while we would like to take the credit of this phenomenal growth to ourselves, justice compels us to give it to the prosperous community in which we live.

The Turning Point

SHE THOUGHT HIM A BURGLAR—HE THOUGHT HER AN INTERLOPER—

It is a strange, thrilling and beautiful story of how she came to love him so dearly that she was willing to send him out of her life for his own good.
