QUOTES KIPLING

Paraphrasing Kipling, Congressman N. J. Sinnott won applause in the house of representatives, May 29, in his speech upon the bill for the adjustment of pay for world war veterans and land legislation beneficial to service men. The Kipling extract of Mr. Sinnott's speech was as follows: Mr. Speaker, Kipling, in his poem of the survivors of the Battle of Balaklava, said:

"There were thirty million English that talked of England's might; There were twenty broken troopers that lacked a bed for the night; They had neither food nor money; they had neither service nor trade; They were only shiftless soldiers, the last of the Light Brigade.

"They felt that life was fleeting; they knew that art was long. That though they were dying of famine they lived in deathless song; They asked for a little money to keep the wolf from the door. And the thirty million English sent twenty pounds and four!"

We might suggest an American version:

There were one hundred million Yankees that talked of Yankee might (Applause.)

And sent but sixty dollars to the boys that fought their fight; Yes; sixty dollars; that and nothing more,

If that's to be in history America's low score—

Then— "God of our fathers, known of old, Lord of our far-flung battle line, Beneath whose awful hand we hold Dominion over palm and pine; Lord God of Hosts be with us yet, Lest we forget—lest we forget." (Loud applause.)

JUDGE RESIGNS

MANILA, P. I., Apr. 7. (By Mail.) Florentino Torres, 76 years old, who has been an associate justice of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands for nineteen years, today tendered his resignation, because he said he believed he should have justice instead of Victorino Mapa whom President Wilson named for the position last week.

REASONS FOR BUYING FURS

CHICAGO, June 8.—"You should hear the reasons many working girls give for buying fur coats," remarked a Chicago merchant, to the great number of such purchases being made. "One of the commonest is, 'well, if I don't get it now before I get married, I never will afterward.' The sight of so many handsome furs coming to downtown office buildings has led to the report that girls are buying them on the installment plan. Not so in the main, according to inquiry among merchants.

The furs that working girls buy on installments, one house prominent in this class says, are mostly of the cheaper grades, averaging in price around several hundred dollars.

Now and then, said the proprietor of this concern, a working girl making a good salary comes in to buy a $400 or $500 fur. Her first payment on a purchase of this size is required to be $150, $200 or perhaps more. She has then four or five months in which to meet the balance.

The run of the stores however ask cash in advance. True enough, many have their own installment plan, but this is quite different from the deferred payment system usually associated with real estate.

These deferred payments are "before" rather than "after" getting the goods. The working girl who signs for a handsome fur can go to a number of the big mercantile houses and select the coat she likes, make an initial payment and have it laid away while she is completing a series of regular installments. When she has made the last she gets the coat.

Many of the expensive fur coats worn by working girls are bought by girls who live at home with their parents, it is reported by furriers, and they add that frequently assistance is given from father's pocket-book.

While "now or never" may be the reason that leads many young women on a salary to a fur coat, some merchants say that the high prices of other kinds of coats is a very important factor in these purchases.

Although eggs of different species of birds greatly differ in shape, the yolks of all are invariably spherical.
