

NIGHT SESSION MAY NOMINATE NEXT PRESIDENT

DANGER OF LEAGUE SPLIT DECLARED OVER

COLISEUM, Chicago, June 10, (11:45 a. m.)—A tentative agreement had been reached by the convention managers not to hear any nominating up until the time the platform had been presented. Under such an arrangement today's proceedings would be devoted entirely to "filling in" speeches, but almost at the moment the convention managers made this agreement they received word that the platform committee was about to agree; that all danger of a split had been averted; and that a report is to be presented today in fulfillment of this latter plan. This would bring on some nominating speeches today.

COLISEUM, Chicago, June 10.—While awaiting the report of the platform committee the Republican national convention held a brief session this morning, then much to the disappointment of the galleries recessed until 4 o'clock.

There was consideration of plans to go ahead with the nomination speeches while awaiting the platform report but this was abandoned when objection was voiced. While the convention managers were debating what to do, word came from downtown that the platform sub-committee had agreed on a report and a few minutes later Senator McCormick of Illinois, one of the sub-committee, appeared on the platform and announced a unanimous agreement had been reached which promised the union of the party and victory next November. A recess was then decided on.

A league of nations plank, declared by leaders to be "acceptable to everybody" was unanimously adopted today by the resolutions sub-committee, apparently ending all threat of a party split over the league issue.

The plank upholds the senate in refusing to ratify the treaty of Versailles and declares that any future international peace understanding must square with American traditions and omits any affirmation of, or declaration for, the league which had been urged by the mild reservationists.

Originally drafted three weeks ago by Elihu Root, the plank was revised at an all-night series of conferences and was adopted by the sub-committee, after Senator Lodge had appeared in committee room and declared if the mild reservation proposal was accepted he would go on the floor of the convention and fight it.

The plank was said by the sub-committee members to be wholly acceptable to former Senator Murray Crane, Massachusetts leader of the mild reservation group. The complete platform was to be taken to the convention floor late this afternoon and it was said a night session might be called for nominating speeches.

Other planks agreed on last night by the sub-committee included an industrial relations declaration from which all reference to anti-strike legislation had been omitted.

A plank blaming depreciation of money values and the high cost of living, one opposing government ownership or operation of railroads and one expressing in general terms, without mention of a cash bonus, the gratitude of the party to former service men.

SUGAR WILL BE RATIONED THROUGHOUT U. S. JUNE 21

NEW YORK, June 10.—Rationing sugar, as in war time, will go into effect in hotels and restaurants throughout the country June 21st, Armine W. Riley, special assistant attorney general announced today.

WEATHER REPORT

Oregon—Tonight and Friday, showers; moderate southerly winds.

FIRM HAND IN MEXICO URGED IN PLATFORM

CHICAGO, June 10.—Portions of the tentative planks relating to the peace reservation, Mexico and Armenia follow:

Peace resolution—We approve the action of the Republican party in congress in passing a resolution to repeat the declaration of a state of war with Germany which would have brought peace and relieved the people of the burden of the war measures and we condemn the president's veto of this resolution.

Mandate for Armenia—We condemn President Wilson for asking congress to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. We commend the Republican senate for refusing the president's rule to empower him to accept a mandate, for Armenia. The acceptance of such mandate would throw the United States into the very maelstrom of European quarrels.

We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways but the Republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

Mexico—The ineffective policy of the present administration in the Mexican matter has been largely responsible for the continued loss of American lives in that country and upon our border; for the enormous loss of American and foreign property; for the lowering of American standards of morality and social relations with Mexicans, and for the bringing of American ideals of justice and national honor and political integrity to contempt and ridicule in Mexico and throughout the world, and the policy of wordy, futile, written protests against the acts of Mexican officials, explained the following day by the president himself as being meaningless and not intended to be considered seriously enforced has but added in degree to that contempt, and has earned for us the sneers and jeers of Mexican bandits and added insult upon insult against our national honor and dignity.

We could not recognize any Mexican government unless it be a responsible government willing and able to give sufficient guarantees that the lives and rights of American citizens are respected and protected, that wrongs will be promptly corrected and just compensation will be made for injury sustained. The Republican party pledges itself to a consistent, firm and effective policy toward Mexico that shall enforce respect for the American flag and that shall protect the right of American citizens lawfully in Mexico to security of life.

BULLETIN

CHICAGO, June 10.—When the convention resumed at 4 o'clock an agreement was pending to dispose of the platform report and then adjourn until tomorrow morning with the understanding that all nominating speeches and battling for president would be finished before the convention adjourned again.

JOHNSON ANALYZES ANTI-LEAGUE VICTORY

CHICAGO, June 10.—Senator Johnson declared today that in a contest given the platform section on the league of nations the "first assault of internationalism by the international bankers on the Republican party had met defeat." It had been charged by the Johnson-Borah group that the Crane plank "had its birth in Wall street."

There would be a "second assault" by the same forces, Johnson asserted, with the object of nominating a favorable candidate, which he "hoped would be met and defeated," but he added that if the reports on the platform decision reaching him were correct it would not be necessary for him to take his league fight to the convention floor.

FIGHTING "HOPPERS" ON UPPER MARSH

County Agent Thomas left this morning for the Upper Marsh where the grasshopper fight is being carried on. L. P. Rockwood, Federal Entomologist, has been up there for the past few days and will remain to assist in the community mixing and spreading which will take place Friday and Saturday. Every stockman interested in the district is urged to give his assistance both Friday and Saturday in mixing and spreading poison wherever the grasshoppers are found. A car of material was shipped the first of the week.

Reports received from the Tule Lake district today indicate that the fight has been successful in that district and that the pest is now under control.

ENGINEER DIES UNDER WRECKED LOCOMOTIVE

HUNTINGTON, Ore., June 10.—Engineer Robb was killed and a fireman badly burned late last night when a helper engine overturned near here. Marshall Smith, call boy, riding on the helper, went back and flagged the oncoming freight, preventing a wreck.

GARAGE THIEF GETS TOOLS

Somebody broke into the Dunham garage last night and took a rim, tire, two inner tubes, a jack, air gauge, two wrenches and other tools and accessories belonging to Mr. Winnek's Studebaker car. The owner hopes to catch the thief sooner or later through identification marks stamped on the tools, and when he does there is going to be a reckoning.

LEAGUE SPLITS THE MAKERS OF G. O. P. PLATFORM

COMPROMISE LEAGUE
PLANK SUBMITTED

CHICAGO, June 10.—The league of nations plank drafted by Elihu Root was accepted as a basis for compromise today by irreconcilables on the resolutions sub-committee. The plank, which upholds the senate position and does not declare in specific terms for the ratification of the treaty, was also agreeable to representatives of the mild reservation group on the committee.

It was said by some that the possibilities of breaking upon the treaty question on the floor of the convention had not entirely passed.

CHICAGO, June 10.—As the platform makers of the Republican national convention resumed work this morning, they described prospects for an agreement as "pretty bad." Irreconcilables on the League of Nations issue continued their threat to leave the party if the platform affirmed it in any way.

Has "Dry" Plank

There also was a plank asking for the prompt ratification of the woman suffrage amendment, but the sub-committee voted against the inclusion of any direct reference to prohibition.

The tentative foreign policy plank under consideration in the sub-committee provided in part: "We approve the action of the Republican senate with respect to the proposed treaty of peace with the covenant of the League of Nations. We declare our opposition to the treaty and the League of Nations as published by the President and approve the action of the Republican senate in resisting ratification without safeguarding reservations."

"We favor the ratification of the treaty of peace with the League of Nations with reservations which are in accord with the American principles which protect the liberty and independence of the people of the United States and which in no case shall be less effective in these respects than the reservations proposed and adopted by the Republicans of the senate."

The conference of leaders began this morning, long before 9 o'clock, when the full resolution committee was to assemble. The treaty fight revolved around three proposals, the Johnson-Borah demands for a flat declaration against the treaty; the Crane plank for ratification with reservations and Senator Smoot's proposed compromise approving the Republican senators both for resisting ratification without reservations and for seeking ratifications with them.

The text of the Smoot plank follows: "We approve the action of the Republican senate in resisting ratification without safeguarding reservation and in seeking ratification with reservations in accord with American principles which protect the liberty and independence of the people of the United States."

HEADS OF ANIMAL PEST CONTROL HERE

Dr. W. B. Bell, assistant in charge of rodent and coyote work over the western states, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., accompanied by Ira N. Gabrielson, who has charge of the rodent work in Oregon, and Stanley G. Jewitt, in charge of predatory animal work in this state, were in the county yesterday and called at the county agent's office to confer on the squirrel campaign which the farm bureau has been carrying on.

They found matters in general in very good shape but there are a few places which they say must be cleaned up at once. The more fact that a man has poisoned his field does not excuse him if squirrels in numbers are still to be found. The party left today for Lakeview where they will meet the county agent and look over conditions in that county.

STATE COMPILES LIST OF DEAD IN GREAT WAR

County Clerk C. R. De Lap has received from George A. White, adjutant general of Oregon, a list of Klamath county men who died or were killed in service during the great war. The list is compiled from the official records. It is published in order that any omissions that may be discovered may be corrected.

One name known to Mr. De Lap, does not appear on the list, that of Louis E. Tolle, son of Henry F. Tolle of Merrill, who died in camp. If any reader discovers other omissions either the county clerk's office should be informed, or the information sent directly to the adjutant general.

Following is the list submitted by Mr. White:

- Boggs, James H., private infantry, Lorella, killed in action, July 19, 1918.
 - Cornish, Van A., private infantry, Klamath Falls, killed in action, July 18, 1918.
 - Gilbert, Everett, private coast artillery corps, Klamath Falls, died of pneumonia and measles, October 21, 1918.
 - Hamilton, Albert E., private infantry, Klamath Falls, died of pneumonia, October 6, 1918.
 - Jones, Albert W., sergeant medical department, died of pneumonia, November 9, 1918.
 - Loines, Conrad, private infantry, Klamath Falls, killed in action, October 4, 1918.
 - Panagos, Nicholas W., private infantry, Klamath Falls, died of wounds received in action, October 1, 1918.
 - Parazo, James E., private infantry, Chiloquin, died of pneumonia, October 17, 1918.
 - Parrish, Lee L., private wagon company, Merrill, died of pneumonia, October 11, 1918.
 - Peters, Ray J., corporal aero squadron, Klamath Falls, killed in an airplane accident, September 15, 1918.
 - Redfield, Don Clifford, private school training detachment, Klamath Falls, died of pneumonia, October 25, 1918.
 - Tower, Raymond L., private spruce squadron, Klamath Falls, died of pneumonia, October 26, 1918.
 - Tucker, Frank E., private infantry, Klamath Falls, died of wounds received in action, November 25, 1918.
 - Turner, John L., private infantry, Klamath Falls, died of pneumonia, October 19, 1918.
 - Weeks, Cecil O., private casual detachment spruce production, Klamath Falls, died of pneumonia, October 26, 1918.
- In his letter to County Clerk De Lap, Mr. White says in part:

HENRY J. ALLEN

Governor of the Sunflower state, who in and out of Kansas, is conceded to have possibilities in the race

This list, covering the army and marine corps only, was made up by this office from red casualty cards furnished the state of Oregon by the war department.

It is possible that there may be an addition or two because of oversight on the part of the federal government, although as the records now stand the attached list is a complete one covering Klamath county, (except for losses in the navy.)

It is requested that if there are any omissions or if any of the data contained hereon is inaccurate that the relative inform this office. To this end it is desirable, if you wish to do so, that the list be given to your local papers for publication.

I might add that if there is any information which you or the relatives of the men who died desire other than that contained hereon, I will be very glad to give you a complete statement in the case of any man from the records furnished us by the federal government.

STOLEN AUTOMOBILE IS RECOVERED

The Oldsmobile owned by W. Temple and taken from the street in front of his residence Monday night, was found yesterday, abandoned by the roadside near the Klamath agency. The persons who took the car ran it until they exhausted the gasoline supply. They tried to get gasoline but failed and left the car by the roadside. The man from whom they attempted to buy gasoline has furnished Sheriff Humphrey with a description and he expects to pick up the men.

On the night the car was stolen, the bathhouse was entered and some cigars and candy taken. Some of the cigars were found in the machine.
