TONIGHT ONLY

Double Attraction—Will Rogers in
"WATER WATER EVERYWHERE"

HE TOOK IT HARD

Those pink "sody" bubbles gave him the blues—the other boys out Redstone way felt the same about it. Well, the ladies wanted prohibition, and they got it. But sh! Will Rogers fooled 'em—some little plan. Maybe your Hubbie's working it on you now. Better see the picture and "wise-up."

Summer Reading

Every bookstore dealer knows that his summer sales come as the result of folks trying to avoid the heat by recreation of reading in a shady nook.

Every Optometrist knows there is eye strain in the bright reflected glow of a summer sun.

Normal eyes read at a distance as well as close up. If they feel strained or drawn—and if it is difficult to follow the lines without special effort—IT IS A SIGN OF WEAKNESS.

You should have that eye—have your eyes examined IMMEDIATELY by a RELIABLE OPTOMETRIST.

DRIVING AWAY GLOOM

The "gloom-bug" which has infected the mind and heart and very soul of the pessimist for years and years are sure to be destroyed if Mack Sennett, the comedy king, has his way. He has been spending the better part of his "young life" finding ways and means by which this infection can be destroyed and with each of his big special productions his doses come nearer and nearer. The real "gloom" dispeller is at last found in his latest five reeler, "Down on the Farm" which is released by United Artists and will be at the Liberty Theatre on Saturday. Sennett, when he first began to find the remedy was in despair for he found that most people were pessimists, but he has gradually wormed his ideas of laugh into their beings that he now has a following that numbers more than thirty millions and with each getting at least a thousand laughs out of his latest sensational comedy, the thirty billion laughs should have at least some effect on the populace.

In the role of Billy Fortune, Will Rogers again scores heavily. A unique type of hero—and an irresistible one—Rogers displays in "Water Water Everywhere" the same rugged humanness, the same bashful and infectious smile and the same unaffected sincerity that resulted in his meteoric rise to the pinnacle of public favor and box-office drawing power.

In his latest Goldwyn production Mr. Rogers for the first time in his screen career, is given opportunity to display his daring horsemanship, resulting in some decidedly thrilling and funny bits of business. One is particular that is certain to set your crowd tingling with excitement occurs when Rogers gallops up to Hell's Bells Saloon and swoops through the narrow doorway right up to the bar. Another incident that ranks as a "thriller" is a tremendous explosion in a mine at night. The pictorial effects of this scene enhance greatly the impressiveness of the picture.

The cast of "Water Water Everywhere" is also worthy of special mention. In the leading female role opposite the star is Irene Rich considered one of the screen's most beautiful and promising actresses. Rowland Lee, who has been starred individually in a number of Triangle productions gives a realistic and highly amusing portrayal as the prohibition advocate who carries his subject on his hip. The supporting cast also includes such well known performers as Lydia Tiffin Yeamans, Lillian Langdon and Wate Boteler. At the Star Theatre tonight.

DAIRY NEWS

A nice rain fell in this valley Monday evening. While not near enough, yet it did a great deal of good to the growing crops.

Harry Parker came up from Los Angeles on a business trip Tuesday of this week.

Harold Flackus is painfully ill at this writing, being confined to his bed with a rash and other complications.

The Dairy ball team played and lost their first game of the season on the Bly grounds last Sunday, the score being quite noticeably in favor of Bly. The next game will be played on the home grounds next Sunday between the home team and the Sycamore Indian team.

While raising the car to repair a tire last Sunday, J. W. Jonas got his thumb caught in the auto jack, mashing it very badly.

Mrs. Theo. Flackus who has been visiting in this vicinity, left Wednesday for Nevada.

Mrs. A. E. Powell of Ashland is visiting with her brothers, the Beck boys, this week.

Work is progressing very nicely on the new highway. Mr. Milto has a crew of eight men on the Dairy hill and another crew is busy on the Loe hill.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Attorney General Palmer has made an informal ruling that the chief executive has ten days after the adjournment of congress in which to sign bills and resolutions. These measures included the water-power bill and resolution repealing most of the wartime legislation.

HONOLULU, T. H., May 10. (By Mail).—Many of the smaller schools in the territory of Hawaii, particularly those in the isolated districts, will be forced to close next term if some means is not found to supply teachers, according to Vaughan MacCaughy, superintendent of public instruction for the territory.

Mainland teachers are refusing to come to Hawaii because of better offers than the territory can make, said MacCaughy, while many teachers in the island are planning to return to their mainland homes this summer.
