Society

The concert announced for June 29 has been changed to Wednesday, June 23, in order to permit Harriet Parmore to fill other professional engagements. On June 11 she appeared on the same program with the Zoellner quartet, which is a famous stringed-instrument ensemble.

Thursday evening of last week the family of Mrs. E. F. Nitschelm gave her a birthday surprise at her home in Mills Addition on Shasta Way. The most beautiful presents were showered upon the guest of honor who was celebrating her 60th birthday and at the close of a delightful evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Paul Bogardus gave a birthday dinner at her home on South Riverside Saturday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Brett. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stein, Colman O'Laughlin and Mr and Mrs. Brett and children, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Brett making his first visit to the home of his grandparents on this occasion.

Mrs. L. L. Stein and Mrs. Paul Bogardus entertained the Sisters of Sacred Heart Academy yesterday afternoon at a lawn party at the their home on South Riverside street.

Another of the popular dances which are given occasionally by the members of St. Paul's Episcopal guild was held last night at the White Pelican hotel and was largely attended. Those who attended report a most enjoyable evening.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Mary McClure and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg invited a number of their neighbors in for a social afternoon. The time was passed in needlework and conversation and dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The Musical Study club held an open meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Mills on High street. This was the last meeting of the club for the season and the work will be taken up again in September. The house was beautifully decorated in yellow and white and a miscellaneous program, given by the members, entertained the guests during the afternoon.

Miss Myrtle Record sailed Wednesday for Honolulu, where she will spend the coming year. Miss Record has been principle of the Mills addition school during the past year, and as such she won for herself the esteem not only of the patrons of the school, but of everyone who has taken any interest in the educational advancement of the city.

MARSHFIELD, June 19.—Recently the port of Coos bay was recommended to purchase a site termed No. 2, for dock and warehouses and railroad terminals, by Polhemus and Hegardt, of Portland, engineers who had particularly inspected the six or seven sites offered the port for the proposed improvements. The recommendation was not acted upon when the port received the communication, but it is now determined the port will receive prices on the various sites in question and afterwards decide which
