LONE PINE NEWS

A. C. Bunnell and family have gone to the Turner springs near Bonanza. Mrs. Bunnell has been troubled with rheumatism for some time and is in hopes of getting relief by taking the baths.

The annual school election was held Monday at the schoolhouse. William Barks was re-elected director and Mrs. Cora Enman, clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiger visited Klamath Falls Monday.

J. E. Enman spent Sunday at the Barks' ranch.

Sam Enman hauled a load of grain to town for L. F. Geertson Monday.

The Rev. Mr. Martin of Mt. Laki called at the Enman ranch Tuesday.

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—Five guilty, 14 not guilty and a disagreement as to 12, was the report brought in late Saturday by the jury hearing the case of 31 railroad men tried in the United States district court here on charges of violation of the Lever act through alleged participation in the switchmen's strike last April.

In a "thinking" life time of fifty years a mental worker would collect in his grey matter some 3,200,000,000 impressions, and if his brain were of average weight, just over four pounds, each grey grain would contain 200,000.

AT THE THEATERS

There is always an element of interest that attaches itself to an actress playing a dual role. Elaine Hammerstein does this admirably in "The Shadow of Rosalie Byrnes," showing at the Star theatre, and provides proof that her country-wide reputation as an actress is well deserved.

She is twins, Leontine and Leona Maddern. Leontine is the incarnation of selfishness and absolutely without honor. Leona possesses all womanly virtues. The two are constantly crossing each other's paths, and their tantalizing resemblance adds zest to their lives. Most of the time Leontine gets the best of her sister in their encounters, because nothing is too sordid for her to make use of to attain her ends. However, Leona comes in for her share of happiness.

The story, technically, is of a very high order. The plot, something really new as plots go, is well-handled, and the element of suspense well sustained to a satisfying climax.

SCHOOL BIDS TO ALL BE OPENED FRIDAY

The bids for contract to build a new school building have not yet been opened by the school board, as was stated yesterday, but time for figuring was extended to city contractors and all bids will be considered on Friday.

QUINCY, June 24.—While hurrying to a midnight supper at the Engel copper mine, Charles Johnson fell to the bottom of a shaft in the mine and was instantly killed. He struck a bucket at the bottom of the shaft, almost severing his head from the body. The accident occurred Saturday night.

That is possible to grow colored wood has been proved by recent experiments. The result is brought about by boring a hole in a growing tree and pouring a solution of dye and water into the opening. The tree absorbs the mixture.

DEVELOP RESOURCES, STATE CHAMBER'S AIM

Expansion Movement Now in Progress Will Allow Broader Activities.

What does Oregon need? What—if it were possible to name the chief factor—does it most need in order to develop with a maximum of success?

The question is impossible to answer. There is no "chief factor." The solution lies not in one particular need, but many.

Oregon today, facing an era of development unparalleled in its history, must fill these needs if it expects to go ahead.

Of the many factors that must be employed if the state is to progress, immigration and colonization stand pre-eminent in order to solve the vital problem of land settlement.

Irrigation, reclamation of land and drainage must be developed as another method of bringing about the solution of this problem. Farm labor must be brought in. Homeseekers who in turn become food producers, must be encouraged and made to see the possibilities that await them in the great northwest.

Good roads must be built. As the vast tracts of wilderness with their billions of feet of timber are converted into lumber, highways must be provided over which commerce can be carried and the scenic beauties of the State viewed by the tourist.

Among other needs are industrial expansion, railroad extension and water power development.

Advertising and publicity must be carried on if Oregon is to be made known as a country for the homeseeker or where Opportunity beckons. Its scenic beauties must be advertised to attract the stream of golden dollars from tourists and pleasure seekers. Other states, most of them with fewer advantages to attract, are realizing millions each year from tourists—because they realize the value of advertising and making public what advantages they possess.

Oregon must develop its water transportation, its mineral lakes, its ports and reach out for foreign trade and it must develop the state to produce the exports which are to go down to the sea in ships. It must expand its educational facilities as an additional advantage to hold out to the homeseeker with children to educate.

The Oregon State Chamber of Commerce is the most logical agency to carry on this development work simply because a state organization of this nature can work for the mutual good of all communities in the state without favoring any particular one.

OREGON PLAYGROUND FOR TOURISTS AIM OF STATE CHAMBER

Switzerland used to be the poorest country, per capita, in the world. Now it is the richest. Tourist travel did it.

Main and Colorado each receive $50,000,000 per year from their tourists; Florida gets $250,000,000; California, half a billion a year. Oregon gets $5,000,000.

A three year's advertising campaign by the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce may be expected to bring in at least one-half of what Main and Colorado get, or $25,000,000, which should increase on a rising scale.

STATE CHAMBER SEEKS TO DOUBLE POPULATION ON FARMS IN 3 YEARS

Oregon has water resources to irrigate 4,000,000 acres of land now unproductive, and which would support in comfort, 200,000 new population, or about 40,000 new families.

If in its three year's campaign to put families on Oregon's vacant land, the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce can bring 1,000 families to utilize this land and water, it will mean in expenditures alone for such commodities as clothing, food, furniture, etc., of $1,000,000, calculating the expenditures for an entire family at only $1000 per year, to say nothing of the wealth produced by these new settlers.

Land settlement is one of the chief aims of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce in its program in its movement to aid in the development of the State.

Oregon has 16,000,000 acres of tillable land now uncultivated.

Oregon produced 20,400,000 bushels of wheat in 1919.

If Oregon's 16,000,000 acres of tillable but uncultivated land were planted in wheat and the yield were the Oregon average for ten years—21.9 bushels per acre—new production would be 350,400,000 bushels which, at the price today of $3 per bushel, would mean a cash value of $1,051,200,000.

The Oregon State Chamber of Commerce expects to double the number of farmers in three years. If this means double the wheat crop, it will mean an additional yield of 20,400,000 bushels of wheat, which at the prevailing price would mean a cash value in new money of $61,200,000.

SUMMONS FOR PUBLICATION Equity No. 1169

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath. Ricey A. Baird, plaintiff, vs. Emma G. Robinson, W. C. Foster and L. M. Langley, Defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon: To W. C. Foster and L. M. Langley, Defendants.

You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before July 9, 1920, that being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons. And if you fail to so answer or appear, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint on file herein, to-wit:

That that certain mortgage executed by the defendant, Emma G. Robinson, on the 21st day of March, 1914, in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $2,800, payable one year after date, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, covering the following described real estate: All of section 36, Township 35 South, Range 10, East of Willamette Meridian, Klamath County, State of Oregon, be foreclosed by decree of this Court; that the sum of $170 be allowed as a reasonable attorney's fee in said foreclosure proceeding, together with costs of suit.

That the defendants, W. C. Foster and L. M. Langley be barred and foreclosed of every right, title and equity of redemption, or other interest in said mortgaged property, save the statutory right of redemption, in said premises.

This summons is served by publication thereof, in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper, printed, published and of general circulation in Klamath County, Oregon, by order of Honorable D. V. Kuykendall, Judge of the above entitled court, made and filed May 27th, 1920, which said order requires that this summons be published once a week for six consecutive weeks, beginning on the 28th day of May, 1920.

GEO. ESTES and W. A. WREST, Attorneys for Plaintiff.
