NEW ORCHESTRA IS GIVEN GOOD START

A good crowd attended the opening dance of the Winged O Five orchestra at the Moose hall last night and flattering comments on the quality of music evoked by the "jazz jugglers" were plentiful. About 75 couples were present.
M. H. Ruick, manager of the orchestra, expressed satisfaction today at the initial reception given the organization and said the orchestra would endeavor to reciprocate for the kindness.
There will be another dance tonight at the Moose hall with music by this orchestra and another there Saturday night. Tomorrow night the Winged O Five play for the Elks dance.

SUIT TO RESTORE DEED

Charles Horton has begun suit in the circuit court against the Santa Fe Pacific Railroad company to supply a lost deed. Years ago plaintiff purchased some railroad land. The deed was never recorded and is lost and the action is a friendly suit to place plaintiff's title on record.

SOUTHERN COMPANY TO STAY OUT WEEKEND

"Hen Pecked Henry" drew much better at the Houston opera house last night than on the opening night. The performance maintained the same standard of excellence.
Goodman & Hughes, managers, announced today that the show would remain here for the rest of the week, changing programs every night. There is no performance tonight as the theater was previously engaged but Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights are taken by the theatrical company.
The play Friday night is "End of a Perfect Day," a comedy chuck full of punch and pop. Saturday "In Wrong" is billed and Sunday night "Pardon Me."
From here the show goes to Yreka, then north to Medford, Roseburg, Eugene, Salem, Portland and through Washington into Canada.
