Society

June weddings continue to hold first place in the realm of society, while other affairs are pushed into the background. The hot weather, too, throws an apathy over the merry-makers.

A pretty home wedding, the culmination of a college romance, took place Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Yadon, when Miss Carol F. Walton became the bride of Stanley Wood. The marriage was solemnized by the Reverend S. J. Chaney.

A buffet supper was served after the ceremony and the guests were pleasantly entertained throughout the evening.

Mr. Wood is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and is practicing law in Oakland, California, at present.

Mrs. Wood has been active in public health service in Arizona for the past two years, having been in charge of the anti-tuberculosis work there.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wood, parents of the groom, Miss Vera Wood, Will Wood and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Yadon, the mother and sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Thompson and Miss Ruth Tompkins.

Miss Emelia Sams, who taught for three years as principal of the schools in Fort Klamath, was married Friday, to Harold Bunch, in Medford. The young couple expect to reside there in the future as Mr. Bunch has purchased the drug and confectionary store which was formerly owned and operated by Ed. Pomeroy.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Lela J. Hagen to Dr. Clarence Miller of Portland, appeared in the Sunday Journal. Miss Hagen, who is a sister of Mrs. Jack Slater, is widely acquainted here, having spent the summer with her sister last year.

The Hagen-Miller wedding will be an event of the last of the month.

Miss Lucile Garber was hostess at an informal affair last night for her college sorority sisters. Miss Garber is a University of Oregon student and a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Her guests included Misses Marjory Delsell, Clara Calkins, Audrey Roberts, Myler Calkins and Maybelle Leavitt.

The dance last Friday at Fort

Klamath was attended by a big crowd and the banquet which was served later at the Fort Klamath hotel is reported to have been excellent.

Mrs. O. Peyton gave a delightful birthday party in honor of her two sons, Colvin and Leslie, last week. The party which was a surprise was carried out in a pink and white color scheme, both in the decorations and the refreshments.

Guests were, Delos Mills, Greta Madison, Esther Calkins, Lillie Jones, Warren Bennett, Jean Perry, Esther Haines, Anna Hackland, Irae P. Biehn, Winford McCormick.

The informal dance given last night in the Elks temple, for members and their ladies, was attended by about a hundred couple. They all report a lovely time and that the music furnished by the Winged "O" orchestra was exceptionally fine for dancing.
