

PERFECT CONFIDENCE

Klamath Falls People Have Good Reason for Complete Reliance

Do you know how—
To find relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To assist weak kidneys?
Your neighbors know the way—
Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
Have proved their worth in many tests.
Here's Klamath Falls testimony.
Mrs. Ray J. Barrow, 1411 Oregon Ave., says: "My kidneys were weak and I became run down. Often I had severe backaches and pains just over my kidneys. The action of my kidneys was irregular, also. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they cured me of all signs of the trouble and I have had no return of it. I always recommend Doan's for I know they can't be beat for Kidney trouble."

Price 40c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Barrow had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

AT THE THEATERS

At the Liberty today—H. B. Warner, the famous English actor, in "The Man Who Turned White," his initial Superior Pictures release made by Jesse D. Hampton and distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, plays the role of an Arabian desert raider, "All Zaman," known as the scourge of the Sahara.

There are some magnificent desert scenes in the production, with wild-riding Bedouins, whirling dervishes, camels, caravans, and a thrilling fight between the desert bandits and British soldiers, ending in the rescue of the girl and "The Man Who Turned White" and fought against his own band of cut-throats.

Oriental dancing-girls in striking costumes of necklace and breast-shields, give some graphic illustrations of how "All Baba Shimmy-Shiver" is done in a genuine Mohammedan cafe. These scenes are notable for their lavish settings and gorgeous—though scant—costuming. Beautiful Barbara Castleton plays opposite Mr. Warner, and makes a splendid foil for that great actor. Others in an excellent cast are Wedgewood Nowell, Eugenie Ford, Carmen Phillips, Jay Diggins, Manuel Ojeda and Walter Perry.

An unusually novel and amusing play called "An Adventure" brings Julian Eltinge back to the screen after a long absence. His new vehicle atones for the time he was away. "An Adventure" will show at the Liberty Theatre tomorrow.

Julian Eltinge has deservedly won for himself the reputation of being the best female impersonator on the American stage, and his work in his new film, released by Republic, bears out that reputation.

An Marnette Fedora, who stops the wicked plotters from restoring the monarch in the land of Alpasia, he has a role which gives him ample opportunity to display his grace, charm and understanding of a woman's temperament. But that is not all he does: As Jack Perry, a fearless adventurer, he goes through a series of experiences in airplanes, automobiles, on the battlefield and before a firing squad, which would turn the ordinary man's hair gray.

Hailed by critics as one of the greatest motion pictures ever produced, the Paramount-Artcraft feature, produced by George Loane Tucker, "The Miracle Man" will be displayed at the Mondale theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. It is the screen version of George M. Cohan's play that scored so emphatically on Broadway some years ago, and which in turned was based on Frank L. Packard's famous novel. No picture in recent months has had so much praise lavished upon it for the dramatic quality of its story, its keen characterization, and beautiful photography.

The story of "The Miracle Man" centers around an old patriarch of the hills who has gained a reputation for his power to heal the sick and crippled. To him come a band of unscrupulous crooks from the slums of New York—Tom Burke, their leader; Rose; The Frog and the Dope—who have conceived the scheme of capitalizing the healer's gift and taking the money for themselves.

What follows is one of the most absorbing stories ever unfolded on the screen. In the hands of such talented players as Thomas Meighan, Elinor Fair, Betty Compson, Lon Chaney and W. Lawson Butt, the development of the chief characters under the influence of the deaf and blind patriarch is portrayed with admirable skill.

SUMNER IS LIKE DIFFERENT MAN

Portland Man Gains Thirteen Pounds and Feels Stronger and Better Than in Years, He Says.

When I began taking Tanlac I had come down to one hundred twenty-two pounds in weight, but now I tip the scales at one hundred thirty-five and am still gaining," was the statement made recently by J. C. Sumner of 553 Market St., Portland, Ore., a well known employee of the Simmons Salvage Co.

"I had been a sufferer from stomach trouble, disordered kidneys, backache, sleeplessness and a general run-down condition, for the past three years," Mr. Sumner continued. "I had little or no appetite and what I ate soured and started gas to forming which would bloat me up as tight as a drum. Every morning my mouth would be as bitter as gall. My kidneys bothered me a great deal and I had such terrible pains across the small of my back that I could hardly get up or down. My liver seemed to be sluggish and I would get so dizzy at times that black spots would come before my eyes. I could never get a good night's rest and many a time I would be in such pain that I wouldn't get over an hour's sleep. I lost about twenty pounds in weight and was so weak it was hard for me to do my work."

"I tried everything I knew of but nothing ever did me a particle of good until I started taking Tanlac, and by the time I had finished four bottles I was feeling like a different man altogether. Indigestion is a thing of the past and it makes no difference what I eat I am never troubled in any way afterwards. My liver and kidneys are in splendid condition and the pains across my back have disappeared entirely. I have not had a dizzy spell since I commenced taking Tanlac and I am sleeping like a log at night. My entire system has been built up and I am stronger and heavier than I have been in years. I am recommending Tanlac to all my friends and I think so much of it I want to stop and tell everybody I meet about it."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., in Lorolla by the James Hurs. Co., and in Merrill by the Southern Oregon Drug Co. Adv.
