CALIFORNIA NEWS

NEVADA CITY, July 1.—Andrew Skinner, who had charge of a donkey engine at the Oak Valley sawmill near Camptonville, was killed there while repairing machinery. Skinner was entangled in a huge cable which completely enveloped him, drawing his body into the cable spool before the power was turned off.

DIXON, July 1.—H. L. Bissell, former banker and well known business man of this city, died here after an illness of several months.

SANTA ROSA, July 1.—Mrs. Jessie Belle Schick has filed a suit for divorce against David Schick, Bennett Valley rancher who was mysteriously shot and nearly killed at his home several months ago.

WOODLAND, July 1.—Suddenly stricken by heart trouble believed to have been the result of an attack of influenza a year ago, Mrs. Burt G. Kingsley passed away in her sleep. Her husband awakened about 6 o'clock in the morning to discover her dead.

NEVADA CITY, July 1.—John Hughes, who was crushed under a falling log at Downsville, died from his injuries. He was tearing down the mountain side and buried him under the wreckage. Hughes was one of the earliest pioneers in Sierra county, coming there in 1852. He lived in Downsville ever since. He was a native of Ireland and aged 84 years.

AT THE LIBERTY FRIDAY

FRIDAY AT THE LIBERTY

NAPA, July 1.—Mrs. Winifred Boynton, widow of the late Dr. E. N. Boynton, a prominent Napa resident well known to old timers here, passed away at her home on North Main street on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. She had been in very feeble health since two years ago.

OROVILLE, July 1.—News reached here Sunday that R. P. Stagner, a native of Chico, and widely known, passed away at the Enloe hospital in that city.

Woodland, July 1.—Miss May C. Hershey, 40, the third of five daughters of the late David N. and Mrs. Hershey, is dead here. Death is attributed to stomach trouble. The family came to Woodland about thirty-five years ago and acquired large property holdings.

VALLEJO, July 1.—More than 400 clerical employes will lose their jobs at the Mare Island Navy yard July 1st as the result of a 50 per cent reduction in one department, brought about through the failure of Congress to appropriate the usual amount of funds for this particular work.

GRASS VALLEY, July 1.—The wage scale agreement negotiated by the Grass Valley Miners' League was signed by the superintendents of five leading mine companies late yesterday and will go into effect July 1st. The minimum wage is to be $4.75 for muckers, $5 for machine miners and $5.25 for timbermen.

NEVADA CITY, July 1.—Emil Jermin, the hermit miner who mined on ground not belonging to him, has been taken to the State hospital at Stockton, having been adjudged insane when examined. Jermin lived in an old cabin in Steep Hollow and barely existed by placer mining. He was considered erratic and dangerous and the You Bet Mining company had him arrested for trespassing. When Sheriff J. R. Martin arrested him, he found a big revolver on Jermin's person.

NEVADA CITY, July 1.—Miss Rose McKeon, who spent her girlhood days in this city, died in San Francisco following an operation, and the remains will be brought here for interment in the family plot in the Catholic cemetery. Miss McKeon was a teacher in the local school for several years, and has taught in the schools of San Francisco for the past twenty-five years.

LOS ANGELES, July 1.—A young man who said he was "Jim" Stevens, 19 years old, confessed to having obtained jewelry valued at $150,000 and furs valued at $30,000 in a dozen burglaries in Los Angeles in the last month.

Weed, July 1.—One of the worst fires in this section in recent years, occurred Saturday night when the old mill, lumber stacker and about 400 feet of tram burned.

The watchman at the veneer plant discovered the fire at 10:45 p. m. Fire companies and citizens fought the flames for two hours to prevent their spreading to Yard 1 and the sash and door factory.

The old mill had not been operated since the new one was built, and was partly dismantled, but there still remained a greater portion of the machinery.

GALT, July 1.—Six hundred and

BASEBALL EACH DAY—ASHLAND VS. YREKA

eighty acres of grain on the farms of Joseph McInerney and John Kenefick were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon.

UKIAH, July 1.—A desire to see a train wreck is reported to have led two 12-year-old boys of Fort Bragg to wrap a logging chain around the inside rail of the railroad track, one mile from Fort Bragg, Calif., in an endeavor to ditch the eastbound passenger train. The engine and three coaches passed over the obstruction safely. Had the chain been around the outside rail, the train, filled with women and children bound for a picnic on Pudding creek, would have been dashed into the creek many feet below. The boys confessed that their desire to wreck the train was inspired from movie film.
