The Misses Elsie and Margaret Setzer are here from St. Paul, Minn., on a visit with their relatives and are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curt F. Setzer, 219 High street. Their visit at this time is primarily due to the glowing stories of this section told them by their father who was here last spring and judging from their enthusiasm they have already become strong believers of what they have heard and it would not be surprising if St. Paul lost two of its residents.

Scotland will be authorized in August this year to vote on local option. English and Welsh localities are not yet empowered to regulate their local liquor trade.
