SATURDAY, JULY 3, 1920

Society

The storm of the past two days which has descended upon Klamath county the past two days is interfering considerably with social plans for Fourth of July celebrations. People who were to have started for Ashland and Bly today are hesitating about braving the slippery, muddy roads in their cars. Not to mention the disagreeable thought of being in a strange town when everything is closed because of the rain.

One of the many outing parties will be that of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Otey and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robertson and friends at Diamond lake. They will leave here Saturday and expect to stay at the lake until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bratten, Don and Dale Soule, sons of Mrs. Bratten, and Mrs. Clarice E. Worden, a guest of the Brattens, have made arrangements to spend Saturday, Sunday and Monday at the Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson, who have recently returned from their honeymoon, will also be at Rocky Point.

Others who have made plans to spend the Third, Fourth and Fifth away from home are Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harrison, of Pelican City who will go to various Rogue river points.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shallock will drive to Sprague river for the three days.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoagland start for Ashland today where they will spend their vacation.

Miss Mary Deggendorfer, Agnes Driscoll, Blanche Warren and Roland Geary started today for Bly where they will take in the horse racing and other rodeo stunts that are scheduled.

A. M. Collier and family, A. B. Collier and family, Charles Collier, and David Collier, who is visiting here from the east where he is interested in the manufacturing of Haywood furniture, are planning on spending the week end at Crater lake.

Rev. S. J. Chaney and family will drive to Ashland today where they will attend the reception given there by the Klamath district of the Oregon Methodist conference. The reception will honor Bishop Shepherd, who has just been appointed to take the place left vacant by the death of Bishop Matt Hughes. Upon their return Mrs. Chaney's mother, Mrs. S. H. Bolton of Twin Falls, will accompany them here for an extended visit.

Miss Mae Owen, a prominent Langell valley girl, was married to Chester A. Crook, at Crescent City, California, June 23. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Owen, of Ashland, while the groom is a prosperous young farmer of Del Monte county, California.

Miss Joste Low served tea to a number of her young friends Sunday afternoon, from two until five.

A delightful evening was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Griffith, at their home in the Henley district, on the 28th, when the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Green entertained with a shower for the newly married couple.

Many beautiful presents were received and a delicious and elaborate country supper was served in the course of the evening. The guests were: Messrs. Gerald West, Lee Bussey, Vel Dillard, Floyd Collier, Berton Green and Jimmie Odem, the Misses Faye Drew, Lucile Garber, Aubra Bradbury, Zena and Eva Dillard, Ella Green, Ruby Shriner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pettison, Mr. and Mrs. P. Green and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd De Lap, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Grizzle, Mr. and Mrs. Tis Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Orem and Glen and Mary De Lap.

Tuesday the Epworth league was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hood, at their home in Pelican City. The leaguers met at the church early in the evening and were conveyed to the Wood residence in cars.

Upon their arrival Mr. Wood conducted the party on a sight seeing tour through the mill. After this they returned to the house and were served with refreshments before starting for home. About 35 members of the league attended the entertainment.

A banquet was held last night at the Rex cafe for all past county school superintendents.

Among them were the following: C. R. DeLap, who is the oldest of the officers, P. L. Fountain was next in office to Mr. DeLap, J. G. White, J. G. Swan, Fred Peterson, Mrs. Harry Ackley, Miss Twyla Head and Miss Maud M. Carlson, who has been assistant superintendent for a number of years.

The marriage of Miss Lula Hagen and Dr. Clarence A. Miller, was quietly solemnized Thursday, June 24th at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nora E. Hagen of Portland.

The service was read at 5 o'clock in the presence of a few close friends and immediate relatives of the bridal couple. The Rev. Oswald Taylor, of Grace Memorial church, officiated.

For her wedding gown the bride wore a summery frock of white net, a large picture hat of white and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lula Miller, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and Earl Jenks attended the bridegroom.

Dr. Miller is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller, and is a graduate of the North Pacific Dental School, and belongs to Delta Sigma Delta fraternality.

After a brief honeymoon Dr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home to their friends in Irvington.

Mrs. Miller is a sister of Mrs. Jack Stater of this city and made many friends during a visit here last summer.

The Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. M. L. Miller in Mills Addition Thursday afternoon, with 12 members and eight visitors present. The subject was "The New Emphasis on the Missionary Society," and a very interesting program was rendered. Mrs. R. H. Dunbar has been sent to the C. C. State Convention, the women of the Society raising the money at a dollar a member in as many unique ways as possible, some of the methods being given in rhyme.

Mrs. Miller and her assistant hostesses, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hale, served very dainty refreshments and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Miss Cora Miller has a voice of rare sweetness and unusual quality, and her most enjoyable numbers were "Waiting" by Millard, and "Sylvain" by Sinding. Miss Miller has studied singing only eight months and has made remarkable progress in that short time.

Miss Margaret Worden's piano number was rendered in a masterly manner. Her technique is clear-cut and her interpretation of the Schumann Carnival Scene was marked by splendid rhythm, power and expressiveness. She was forced to respond to two encores and her many friends in the audience were delighted with her ability.

H. B. Pasmore sang two numbers in an easy and finished manner, his second song winning special applause. But the bright particular star of the evening was Miss Harriet Pasmore.

She made a most pleasing picture, in her gown modeled on Grecian lines, and her personality impressed itself upon her listeners before she had sung a note. But when her glorious voice broke upon their ears they were spell-bound. It is a voice which defies description, but its depth and richness and volume stir one's heart. Cadman's "Land of the Sky-Blue Water" was simply perfection, with its big, warm 'cello-like tones. The Russian "Hopak" was a gorgeous, spectacular drama, full of fire and thrilling tones. "Roadways" by Denmore, was quietly and expensively rendered. She responded to several encores. Miss Pasmore is truly great and such a voice as her's has not been heard here before. Her trip to Paris will undoubtedly bring her the fame which she so richly merits.
