CAVEMAN STUFF ALL RIGHT

At Least One Indiana Man is Settled With the Way it Worked in His Particular Case.

Now, she is a very sarcastic young woman, and the man who wishes to marry her is often much tormented with her ability to say things which make him distinctly uncomfortable.

She had come to take her for a drive. After getting her safely settled in his car and having placed a large box of candy in her lap he settled down for a pleasant evening.

At first the young man felt inclined to writhle, but the next minute the caveman stuff of the movie darted into his mind.

For a long time there was silence. Then the girl began the conversation. And this time she spoke merrily and in "boned" tones.

COMMISSION ON MAIN ST.

A car driven by W. D. Campbell was struck, and the left rear wheel torn to pieces, when another car driven by G. R. Frisby ran into him at Fourth and Main streets yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Campbell had the right of way as he came down Fourth street and started to make the turn at Main. Mr. Frisby, a local jitney driver, was coming up Main street and could not stop his car in time to avert a collision.

KLAMATH LIVESTOCK COMPANY INCREASES CAPITAL FOURFOLD

Appointment to the women's branch of the Chicago police force appears to be a sure road to matrimony. During the past year the Windy City has lost six of its police-women through marriage.

In one of the large municipalities of India the native women of all classes recently joined in a great demonstration of protest against the discrimination practised with regard to the education of girls.

Miss Gwendoline Farrar, who inherited a fortune of several million dollars from her father, the late Sir George Farrar, the Rand millionaire who was one of those sentenced to death by Boers for taking part in the Jameson Raid, is one young woman who can keep a secret.
