MERRILL OBSERVES FOURTH OF JULY

MERRILL, July 8.—Appropriate services were held on the Fourth of July at Merrill, Oregon. The services in the morning were held in the Presbyterian church. Attorney Marks of Merrill delivering the address, after which the audience repaired to the I. O. O. F. hall where the ladies served a bountiful dinner, at the close of which a general program was rendered consisting of songs, the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Miss Hill, followed by brief addresses by more than a dozen of the citizens. The exercises were closed by a stirring address on patriotism by Dr. Wolfe of the Presbyterian church and the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." A large number of the citizens had gathered together for the occasion and expressed a desire for more of such community gatherings.

Merrill is on the forward move, a number of new buildings are to be erected in the near future. Mr. Anderson is now putting up a fine new store building on Main street. Several good rains of late have caused the dry farmers to greatly rejoice, and the prospects are for a good harvest this year.

A big Tom Thumb wedding is to be given at the Presbyterian church this evening.

It is reported that E. M. Bubba, the banker, is soon to leave town, which is very much regretted.

Miss Doris Ady gave a Fourth of July dinner to a number of her girl friends.

ENDERS SAYS

Why, yes, CHERRIES have been upon the market for some time and, say, the quality is all right, but I can't say that much for the quantity. Do you know that the cherry crop this year is hardly more than fifty per cent of normal? At that, we have a moderate supply on hand, we get them fresh every day—you know the kind—those nice, big, luscious cherries that do not require a great deal of sugar for canning, and if you do not delay, you can get your season's supply without any difficulty. But, remember, she who hesitates is lost. The person who said "there is no time like the present" surely must have been thinking about this year's cherry crop.
