ODE TO A STAR

I have noticed in the pages of your local daily press. A column that's devoted to character, speech and dress.

"Pot Pourri" is the head line Below Lone Star shines so bright And I've wondered if it's boiled stuff That's served to us each night.

But whether boiled or pickled Or put up like Irish stew The ingredients for its making Are far from being new.

"Pot Pourri"—Does it smell bad? Or has it a "drug store" taste? Like ipecac or quinine, Or is it just left-over and waste?

Still, Lone Star may be a policeman Or Heap Big Injun Chief And to criticize his warbling Might bring us soon to grief.

HARDING TALKS WITH PROGRESSIVE ENVOY

MARION, July 9.—A number of conferences were scheduled when Senator Harding, the Republican presidential candidate reached his office today. Among those to call was Henry L. Stoddard, of New York, who attended a recent dinner in New York of prominent progressive leaders at which a resolution endorsing Harding and Coolidge was adopted. The senator also planned to continue the writing of his speech accepting the nomination, work on which is progressing rapidly.

A Classified Ad will sell it.

MAIN AND SIXTH STREETS

In our judgment, Main and Sixth Sts. offer the best investments to be had in our city. We call attention to the following:

Two story brick-stone building and 65 ft. corner lot at Second and Main, at $12,500 on easy terms.

New and attractive two story brick building at Sixth and Main which is bringing an income of $2720 annually. Will sell at a price that will net more than eight per cent on the investment, and it is sure to get better.

We would like to show you a 70 ft. corner at 11th and Main at a price of $14,000, on terms. Also a 40 ft. corner at same place for $9,000, or a 30 ft. inside at $6,000.

Near 11th and Main we also have a 63x175 ft. lot with good dwelling on same at $12,500, on easy terms. This will grow into money.

And we offer 175 ft. in the same location at a price of $150 a front foot. Seldom, if ever, will you have an opportunity to duplicate this investment.

On Sixth St. we offer a 50x104 ft. lot across the street from Garrett's new garage, at a price of $4,000, on terms of half cash.

We also have 161 ft. on Sixth St. and 221 ft. on spur with good iron clad building on part of same, at a price of $12,500, on very easy terms. A big tract of land in a fine location at a sacrifice price.

We SPECIALIZE and are in position to give you good property at low prices on the right terms.
