BANK accounts require careful cultivation—else they shrivel up instead of grow up. It isn't much benefit to open a Savings Account and then forget or neglect it. The First National's greatest banking service to depositors is encouraging the growing up of their accounts.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

POT POURRI

By LONE STAR

Lone Star's wife was on the sick list last week, and a friend met him on the street and said to him:—
"Hello there boy; I hear the wife's sick."
"Yes, very sick" we replied.
"Well is she very dangerous?"
"No, she's too sick to be dangerous any more."

We walked into Lawrence Phelps's grocery the other morning and asked him if he had any two-handed cheese.

"Two-handed cheese?" replied Phelps—"what kind of cheese is that?"

"Oh" we said "it's cheese that you can eat with one hand and hold the nose with the other hand."

You hear a good deal about the raising of preachers' salaries these days, but in the south that subject is taboo.

And the reason is that all the niggers are getting religion, and their wives don't get chicken any more.

But while we are talking about the South we may as well relate a little story we heard when we were south of the Mason-Dixon line a few years ago.

An old darkey wanted to join the fashionable church, and the preacher, not wanting him in the church, and not wanting to hurt the old fellow's feelings either, told him to go home and pray over it.

In a week the darkey came back again.

"Well, what do you think about it now?" asked the preacher.

"Well sah" replied the colored man, "Ah prayed and prayed, and de good Lord he done said to me: 'Rastus, Ah wouldn't bother mah head about dat choich no more'—Ah've been trying to git in dat choich mah-self fo' de last ten years, an' Ah caint do it."

This one I'm going to spring now is about as old as the hills. But there be somewhere a humble reader who has never heard it yet. So here goes:—

A hobo, thinking to enlist the sympathy of a lady, went into her yard and, going down on his hands and knees, began to eat the grass. But the lady was not as easily fooled as the hobo thought.

"What are you doing there, my good man?" she asked.

"Oh, lady, I'm so hungry that I just simply had to have something to eat and as I couldn't find anything else, I started to eat the grass."

"What a pity" she replied, "but if you will go round to the back of the house, in the back yard, you will find the grass much longer."

A Dutchman called upon Attorney Renner the other day for legal advice. After stating all the facts, Renner said to him: "Have you told me all the truth, exactly as it happened?"

"Ach yes I vos don tink dot id vos petter dot I told you de truth unt den you can pu in der lies yourself."

Thad McHattan wanted to go to Weed the other morning, and only had $2.00. It required three dollars to buy a ticket.

Thad took his two-dollar bill into a pawn shop and pawned it for a dollar and a half. On his way to the depot he met a friend to whom he sold the pawnticket for $1.50. Now, who's out that dollar?

MISSOULA, Mont., July 16.—The ready made cigarette is banned and those who desire may smoke only the "makin's" in the national forest near here this year. That is the ruling which the forest service headquarters of District 1 here has sent out to all forest workers. It is contended that the long burning "butt" of a manufactured cigarette is a marked fire hazard, while the smoke of those who "roll their own" are not.
