MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back hurts or Bladder bothers

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that most forms uric acid which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

BEHOLD, THIS MAN SPEAKETH WISELY

Editor Mortal, of the Buckeye County Printer, has unearthed the following somewhere, and is only sorry he didn't know who wrote it so that he could give the clever chap credit. It is so good that his newspaper prints it for the benefit of our readers:

"Consider the editor. He weareth purple and fine linen. His abode is amongst the mansions of the rich. His wife hath her limousine and her firstborn sporteth a racing car that can hit her up in 40 flat.

"Let! All the people breaketh their necks to hand him money. A child is born unto the wife of a merchant in the bazaar. The physician getteth 10 golden plunks. The editor writeth a stick and a half and telleth the multitude that the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. Yes, he lieth even as a centurion. And the proud father giveth him a Cremona.

"Behold, the young one groweth up and graduateth. And the editor putteth into his paper a swell notice. Yes, a peach of a notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman and of her exceeding comeliness. Like unto the roses of Sharon is she, and her gown is played up to beat the band. And the dreamer getteth two-score and four iron men. And the editor gets a note of thanks from the S. G. G.

"The daughter goeth on a journey and the editor throweth himself on the story of the farewell party. It runneth a solid column. And the fair one remembereth him from afar with a picture postal card that costeth six for a jitney.

"Behold, she returneth, and the youth of the city fall down and worship. She picketh one and lo she picketh a lemon. But the editor calleth him one of the most promising young men and getteth away with it. And they send unto him a bid to the wedding feast, and behold the bids are fashioned by Montgomery Hawbuck in a far city.

"Flowery and long is the wedding notice which the editor printeth. The minister getteth 10 bones. The groom standeth the editor off for a 12-months subscription.

"All flesh is grass and in time the wife is gathered unto the soil. The minister getteth his bit. The editor printeth a death notice, two columns of obituary, three lodge notices, a eulogy of poetry and a card of thanks and he forgetteth to read proof on the head and the darn thing cometh out 'Gone to Her last Toasting Place.'

"And all that are akin to the deceased jumpeth on the editor with exceeding great jumps. And they
